BARBER CHAIR WITNESS

Alex Stolov was sitting in this barber chair preparing to get a haircut when the barber, Clarence Robbins, whose cloth-covered body is on floor at left, was shot to death in his shop Thursday in Kansas City. Also slain in her home a few doors away was Mrs. Rosalee Mathews. Police took into custody the woman's husband, Francis W. Mathews, who was waiting at the curb when the police cars pulled up. Stolov got out of the barber chair after the shooting to call police but returned to it for questioning when this picture was taken.

VOTE FARM BILL OUT

Initial Okay Is 18 To 17

Little Change In JFK Measure

Washington (UPI) — By a razor-thin margin of one vote, the House Agriculture Committee Thursday approved a compromise version of President Kennedy's plan to impose unprecedented controls on American farm production to curb surpluses.

The 18 to 17 vote successfully capped months of efforts by White House aides and Democratic leaders to muster the votes needed to squeeze through the committee a catch-all farm bill containing the new control program.

The program's ultimate fate remained in doubt. All 14 Republicans and 3 of the 21 Democrats on the committee voted against it.

The Democrats who voted against the bill, all Southerners, were Reps. Thomas G. Abernethy, Miss., Watkins M. Abbitt, Va., and George Grant, Ala.

Freeman Pleased

Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman said the committee's action meant that the bill had cleared its first "and perhaps most difficult" hurdle. He said the committee had taken a "great forward step toward a balance in agriculture production that will give the farmer an opportunity to earn a fair return commensurate with other segments of our economy."

The bill for the first time would authorize for all major grains the kind of strict planting curbs that hitherto have applied only to wheat, cotton, peanuts, rice and tobacco. It also would tighten existing controls over wheat production.

In addition, the government would be authorized to provide financial aid to help farmers convert surplus cropland into recreation areas. The idea is to help farmers supplement their income by charging fees for hunting, fishing, camping and golfing on their land. This is part of an administration program for shifting 51 million acres from crops to other uses over the next 20 years.

Dairy Controls Deleted

Deleted from the bill were the controls the administration wanted to curtail surplus dairy production. Instead, the committee approved a plan under which those dairy farmers who voluntarily cut production would get federal payments, in addition to the help all dairy farmers receive through price supports.

Committee Chairman Harold D. Cooley, D-N.C., was jubilant over the group's action. He had brought his committee up to the point of a final vote 4 times previously and then had to back away because he was unable to assemble all his troops at once.

Cooley Optimistic

Cooley predicted that the House would pass the bill "in substantially its present form."

Ranking Republican member Charles B. Hoeven, R-Iowa, promptly forecast that the bill "will have real trouble when it gets to the House floor . . . and much difficulty in being enacted into law."

Hoeven said "every poll . . . is heavily against the Kennedy-Freeman-Cochrane proposal to control and regiment the American farmer." He charged the legislation would "almost make it necessary for a farmer to procure a federal license to operate his farm."

$340,000 Aid Granted State

. . . FOR FLOODING

Washington (AP) — President Kennedy declared portions of Nebraska hit by floods as a major disaster area Thursday and made available $340,000 of federal funds for relief purposes.

Kennedy notified Gov. Frank B. Morrison of Nebraska of his action in a letter dated Thursday. The letter said:

"The distress suffered by the people in the stricken areas has been of deep concern to me and I am hopeful that the situation has greatly improved."

Kennedy told the governor that representatives of the Office of Emergency Planning, which handles the relief funds, will help him in executing the necessary documents covering expenditure of the $340,000.

Allocations

State Civil Defense Director Maj. Gen. Lyle C. Welch said that the allocation breakdown to the cities and counties involved will have to be worked out with officials of the Office of Emergency Planning.

He said Bureau of Public Roads and the State Highway Department will be investigating claims of damaged federal aid roads in the area. Assistance to damaged federal highways is handled separately, he said.

Welch said claims of damage to the public facilities in the area have already been authenticiated by the Office of Emergency Planning. But he said the breakdown of funds going to these political subdivisions will be some time in coming.

Names of 24 counties were submitted for aid. They are, with damage estimates:

Boyd $52,552, Burt $59,300, Cass $3,350, Colfax $25,000, Cuming $70,000, Dakota $67,500, Dixon $225,000, Dodge $24,100, Douglas $400,000, Garfield $2,600, Hayes $50,000, Knox $117,059, Lancaster $54,173, Madison $49,515, Merrick $21,000, Nance $10,000, Pierce $43,940, Rock $5,000, Sarpy $5,000, Saunders $8,000, Stanton $49,678, Thurston $74,000, Washington $15,000 and Wheeler $8,000.

Welch explained these figures include all damages to public facilities in these counties during a one year period and not just that resulting from the flooding. He said the totals were submitted to make the area meet the $1 million damage eligibility requirement for the federal aid.

In addition it cost the State Civil Defense Department $50,000 and the Highway Department another $63,200 for their efforts in meeting the flood emergency.

Four Nebraska counties had been approved earlier by Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman for flood disaster designation and $84,000 in emergency Agricultural Conservation Program funds to aid in restoring farm land damaged by the floods.

The fund will benefit Dodge, Cuming, Douglas and Washington counties and will be administered by the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Renewal Foe Sees 'Sinister Scheme'

By WOODY HOWE
Star Staff Writer

Dr. R. C. Olney said Thursday night that there is "a mastermind behind this sinister scheme" of urban renewal, Lincoln would revert to the Dark Ages, he said, and "it will take us 1,000 years to recover."

Dr. Olney, leader of the Freedom Volunteers, took on the Organization for Urban Renewal in a television debate that dragged on until it became the longest public service program in KUON-TV's 8-year lifetime.

Chauncey Barney and Norman Krivosha of OUR hooked up with Dr. Olney and Mrs. Elinor Brown in what began as a formal debate on "Resolved, That we should give our City Council the right to create an urban renewal authority."

After about 40 minutes of formal statements and rebuttals, the program directors opened it to questions from the TV audience.

Phones Jammed

The queries flooded the station's 4 telephone lines. Two hours and 25 minutes after the scheduled 60-minute program began, with station sign-off time approaching, questions halted and the program closed

Many of the questions centered on federal involvement in urban renewal.

Barney and Krivosha stoutly maintained that federal funds were not directly involved in the mere creation of an urban renewal authority. The City Council has the option, they said, of accepting the money that is available, under a federal program, to support a city's urban renewal losses on resale of property.

Even if federal money should be accepted — neither Barney nor Krivosha denied favoring acceptance — it did not equate federal control, they said.

The Freedom Volunteer leaders just as steadfastly insisted urban renewal meant federal growth and infringement on individual rights of property.

Record Cited

Dr. Olney said it was part of a "carefully concealed" federal plan for eventual control of all land. As authorities for this he cited statements attributed to Dwight Eisenhower and an un-named writer in the Congressional Record. At the insistence of a phone-caller, he admitted the Congressional Record quote was Barry Goldwater's.

Many of the questioners wanted to know what the two sides thought in respect to an urban renewal authority's power to condenm property.

Mrs. Brown said eminent domain became a "different concept" under urban renewal and condemnation was "without limitation."

Lawyer Barney challenged her interpretation of the Nebraska statute. He said the "without limitation" clause was legal jargon, and there were explicit restrictions on the condemnation of property.

Toward the program's end, under the glare of camera lights, it became less formal and the exchanges grew heated.

At one point, Dr. Olney said he resented the other side's misrepresentations and its suggestions the Freedom Volunteers used "scare statements."

Here Mrs. Brown said, "We do not aim to make anyone fearful, but this program is something to be thought about."

NIK CLAIMS U.S. DID NOT HIT THE MOON

Moscow (AP) — Premier Khrushchev told a group of transport workers Thursday that despite the claims of American scientists no U.S. rocket had hit the moon. He said tauntingly that the Soviet marker on the moon is getting lonesome up there waiting for an American companion.

The Soviet blast at American efforts came as a jolt to the American-Soviet amity in spacemanship development during the current U.S. tour of Soviet astronaut Gherman Titov. He and American astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. have spent hours together and made a joint TV appearance.

Scientists in the United States promptly dismissed Khrushchev's speech as "nonsense."

We Hit The Moon

"We hit the moon with Ranger IV," said a spokesman for the jet propulsion laboratory in Pasadena, Calif.

The laboratory made the rocket Ranger IV, tracked it through space and reported it landed on the far side of the moon April 26 after a 64-hour flight.

In Washington, officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said they too were certain Ranger IV hit the moon.

Determined

An NASA spokesman said impact had been determined through tracking radio signals from the rocket and through the laws of physics and mathematics — the same way the Soviets determined their own moon rocket hit the moon in 1959.

Khrushchev voiced his skepticism of the American claim — the first officially expressed in the Soviet Union — in a speech marking Russia's national railway day holiday. He added that the Soviet technology that had put a Russian rocket on the moon could also provide better railways.

The Soviet premier did not refer to Ranger IV by name but said: "The Americans have tried several times to hit the moon with their rockets. They have proclaimed for all the world to hear that they had launched rockets to the moon, but they missed every time."

Disappointment

The Ranger IV, a fantastically complex spacecraft, was launched from Cape Canaveral, Fla.. two weeks ago. It proved something of a disappointment because a mechanical failure made it impossible for the craft to conduct sophisticated moon measuring experiments. Nonetheless American scientists hailed the feat as a major step in space research. They said that the fact that Ranger IV hit its target without guidance along the way indicates future spacecraft could be shot moonward with accuracy.

It was estimated that the instrument-packed 730-pound Ranger IV may have landed less than 1,000 miles from the Soviet Union's Lunik II, the Russian craft that hit the moon Sept. 14, 1959.

"The Soviet pennant on the moon has been awaiting an American one for a long time but in vain and is becoming lonesome," Khrushchev said.

Echoes Of Old Debate

New York (AP) — There are echoes of an old debate in Thursday's claim by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev that the United States has never hit the moon with a rocket.

It was the summer of 1959 when Khrushchev met then Vice President Richard Nixon in a model kitchen at the newly opened U.S. exhibition in Moscow. The two began debating in frank terms the benefits of capitalism and communism.

Then, less than two months later, the Soviets shot their Lunik II rocket at the moon — and hit it. In New York, Nixon told newsmen that the Russians tried and failed 3 times in the two weeks preceding their successful shot.

Nixon refused to disclose his sources of information.

Whether Khrushchev remembers that or not, he doesn't say. But he does say that the United States has never hit the moon with a rocket yet, and he's not disclosing his sources either.

U.S. experts conceded that the Soviets hit the moon with Lunik II after a close look at radio data from the Soviet moonship before it hit.

Crosby Backing Weaver

Former Gov. Robert B. Crosby of Lincoln Thursday urged the renomination of Rep. Phil Weaver to preserve his position and experience on the House Appropriations Committee.

Crosby said the committee has given Weaver assignments for the past several years to study military installations in and out of the United States—studies aimed at reducing costs and obtaining factual data for the committee's use in determining justified expenditures.

"To lose his experience would be a major setback for those who want to reduce foreign expenditures," Crosby said.

The ex-governor said the studies have required Weaver to be absent from Congress on several occasions, but said Weaver has an overall 90% roll call attendance record for his 4 terms.

"It is unfortunate if, as I hear, Weaver is being attacked at the last minute on this point," Crosby added. "It is a tactic that Nebraska voters will see through. With Weaver's position of seniority and his important committee assignment, he is sometimes required to be absent."

Student Fined For O Street Showing Of Nude Picture

A University of Nebraska art student was found guilty in Municipal Court Thursday of displaying an indecent picture on a public street.

Richard Simons of 1325 R was fined $100 by Judge Richard O. Johnson. Simons, who had pleaded innocent to the charge, gave notice of appeal and was released on $200 bond.

The picture, entered in evidence, was a large painting of a nude woman. Parts of her body had been extended outward to give a 3-dimensional effect. Police testified that Simons had shown the picture to passersby on O St. while another student took photographs of their reactions, allegedly for an article in an art magazine.

Simons' lawyer argued that the picture, painted by Simons' wife, was a work of art. City prosecutor Fred J. Swihart replied that the 3-dimensional aspect "accentuated the positive" and made the picture indecent for display on a public street.

Cold Keeps First Lady Bedridden

Washington (AP) — President Kennedy personally announced Thursday — to hundreds of foreign students attending Washington area colleges — that Mrs. Kennedy is in bed with a cold.

The First Lady was scheduled to accompany her husband in greeting the students at a garden party in the south grounds of the White House. Her press secretary had announced earlier that Mrs. Kennedy was cancelling her engagements for Thursday because she was fatigued.

Kennedy said his wife got the cold "as the result of christening a ship." He told the gathering, however, that Mrs. Kennedy was going to look out the window at the lawn party.

Two Soviet Trains Hit

Moscow (AP) — While big parties were going on all over Moscow in honor of National Railway Day two crowded commuter trains crashed during rush hour at a junction in the north of the city.

Police at the scene said several persons were killed. Officials quickly dropped a curtain of secrecy over the incident despite the fact that scores of ambulances rushed to the scene as thousands of Muscovites looked on.

The crash occurred close to a block of apartments occupied by Western newsmen and diplomats, many of whom saw the crash on their way home.

But officials refused to acknowledge anything untoward had happened.

Partly Cloudy Skies Expected

Partly cloudy skies are expected over much of Nebraska Friday, with highs in the Lincoln area ranging from 85 to 90.

Lincoln's high reading of 93 Thursday tied a record set in 1911.

The state high Thursday was 94 at the Lincoln Air Force Base and Hastings.

Eisenhower Chides President

Too Much New Power Is Sought

. . . IKE CHARGES

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY

Washington (AP) — Dwight D. Eisenhower, looking in the pink, came to town Thursday with a warning and a tale of a dream.

The warning was about expansion of presidential power. President Kennedy is asking altogether too much power, Eisenhower said — to cut income taxes, to start public works rolling, "to regiment all agriculture" and so on.

Asked whether he would like to be back in the White House, the former President gave newsmen a peek into his private dream world.

"Each of us has his portion of ego," he said. "One night I dreamed that the 22nd Amendment (limiting a president to two terms) had been repealed — and it wasn't wholly a nightmare."

But in waking moments, he has second thoughts. He called newsmen's attention to his age, which is 71.

Probably Wise

"No," he said, "at the age I've reached, a younger man should do it. On the whole, the two-term limitation is probably wise."

Eisenhower came to the capital to get a periodic checkup at Walter Reed Hospital, and also to help, in the role of elder statesman, with the planning of the Republicans' fall campaign.

The Charlie Woods consult a New York-to-Texas map.

Charlie Wood And Wife Fly To Texas Via London

New York (AP) —Charlie Wood was about an hour out of Idlewild Airport when he began to sense that something had gone slightly amiss. As he tells it:

"I turned to an American gentleman in the next seat and asked, 'And where in Texas are you flying to?'

" 'Texas?' says he. 'I'm going to London.'

" 'By way of Dallas?' says I. And he looks puzzled and says, 'No, it's a direct flight.'

" 'Crikey!' says I to my wife. 'We're going the wrong way.' "

Headed Back Home

And so they were. Charlie, a 65-year-old retired factory janitor, on his way with his wife from Dugenham, Eng., to visit her sister in Texas, had taken the wrong plane out of Idlewild and were bound right back for Blighty.

The Woods left Southampton on the Queen Mary a week ago to visit Mrs. Wood's sister, Mrs. Kitty Kazassis, in Corpus Christi. The ship brought them to New York without incident and Wednesday they made their way to Idlewild to continue their journey by air.

Charlie showed his plane tickets to a receptionist who directed the couple to Pan American Flight 100.

"The trouble was," said Charlie, "that the tickets I showed her were the tickets for our return trip by air to London on June 20. It really wasn't her fault."

Charlie's wife, Marie, 62, called the stewardess.

"I told her that something had gone slightly amiss," Mrs. Wood said.

Captain Chuckles

"Oh, dear me," exclaimed the girl, who promptly briefed the pilot on the mixup. The latter chuckled and told the Woods not to worry.

In London, Pan American paid all expenses for the Woods and then provided them free passage back across the Atlantic Thursday aboard a westbound jetliner.

Back at Idlewild, the airline was taking no chances with the Woods. A limousine took them to the American Airlines terminal, where they were escorted aboard Flight 89 for Dallas, for sure this time.

Saigon, South Viet Nam (AP) — Communist gunfire has wounded two American fliers and hit 4 U.S. Army and Marine helicopters as Defense Secretary Robert McNamara toured South Viet Nam's sprawling guerrilla war zones

American helicopter crews ran into their toughest communist resistance yet as they carried out support missions and airlifted Vietnamese infantrymen into battle Wednesday and Thursday.

A copilot from the 8th Helicopter Company, whose name was withheld, was wounded on a mission 260 miles north of Saigon Thursday. The helicopter was not seriously damaged, and the pilot was able to land safely and arrange for evacuation of the wounded man by air to a field hospital where he underwent surgery.

Secretary McNamara was visiting American military advisers at training camps and villages in the area at the time.

Blinking Satellite Launch Fails; Fourth In 3 Days

Cape Canaveral (UPI)—The fourth rocket failure in 3 days Thursday ruined a U.S. attempt to orbit a blinking beacon satellite designed to serve as a reference point in the heavens.

A Thor-Able-Star rocket carrying the 355-pound moonlet rumbled aloft at 8:06 a.m. EDT, but 20 minutes later the Air Force announced the rocket's second stage had failed to fire.

The exact cause of the malfunction had not been determined late in the day.

It was the latest in a discouraging string of mishaps.

Tuesday an attempt to send America's revolutionary hydrogen-powered Centaur rocket on its maiden flight failed when the vehicle and its Atlas booster exploded on takeoff. Wednesday the Army's usually reliable Pershing faltered during a test launch, as did the Navy's Polaris.

Fire Truck-Car Collision Causes $375 In Damage

Damage totaling approximately $375 resulted from the Thursday evening collision of a Lincoln fire engine and a Valparaiso man's car at 14th and Cornhusker Hwy., police said.

The fire engine, driven by Fireman Graham L. Spahn, 30, of 4219 North Park Blvd., was enroute to a fire in a field near 9th and Garber.

Entering the intersection, the engine slowed down as a precaution, police said, in addition to sounding its siren and flashing lights.

A car driven by Andrew A. Bartek, 44, of Valparaiso, was collided with the right rear part of the engine. Bartek told police he did not see or hear the truck until too late.

ANDERSON LOW ON NU UNION REMODELING

The University of Nebraska opened bids for remodeling the south end of the Nebraska Union basement Thursday. University officials hope the job will be completed soon enough to move the University Book Store into the remodeled space by next fall, Noel L. Smith of the purchasing office said.

Apparent low bidder was M. W. Anderson Construction Co., with a bid of $28,462. Anderson said it could complete the project within 100 days of its commencement.

Other bidders were Geo. Cook Construction Co.. $29,510; Beall Construction Co., $32,278; Kingery Construction Co., $32,700; and Judds Bros. Construction Co., $36,470.

Acceptance of the bids is subject to the approval of the Board of Regents.

Plans call for removing partitions and moving the student dressing rooms, the Alumni Assn. mail room, and a lounge to other parts of the basement.

The newly created room, approximately 46 feet by 92 feet, will house bookshelves. The University Book Store has kept most of its books in the former administration building because of limited space in the southwest corner of the Union basement.

Dinosaur Caverns, existing in the same type of limestone reef formation as the Carlsbad Caverns, will open this year. Dinosaur Caverns are in western Arizona and Carlsbad Caverns are in southeastern New Mexico.

Agreement Authorized

. . . FOR AIRPORT APPLICATION

The Airport Authority authorized Thursday a $271,610 agreement with the Burlington Railroad for track relocation in connection with the proposed $3.2 million Municipal Airport runway and expansion program.

This was one of several agreements authorized in preparation for submitting an estimated $3.2 million project application by next Tuesday to the Federal Aviation Agency.

Chairman Leo Beck, Jr. called another meeting for next Tuesday to authorize other agreements and review final cost estimates that will go in with the project application.

FAA Deadlines

Deadline for the project application is next Tuesday. The federal airport aid grant agreement, the key document in financing the project, must be signed by June 30.

The Burlington agreement was negotiated earlier this week in Chicago by Authority representatives, who said Burlington officials showed "the finest cooperation."

Harold Hoskins, the Authority's consulting engineer, was reported in complete agreement with the Burlington's $271,610 cost figure although his preliminary estimate had been some $100,000 lower.

UP Delayed

Authorizing action on an anticipated agreement with the Union Pacific was delayed until next Tuesday by the Authority.

Beck said costs for relocation of the two railroads and acquisition of the Abel Construction Company's railroad unloading and storage site in the path of airport expansion will probably reach $1 million as compared with original preliminary estimates of $660,000.

Other Authority costs will involve acquisition of new right-of-way for the two railroads and grading for the new track beds.

All agreements are subject to final approval by the FAA.

The board also authorized a letter of agreement with Abel for relocating its railroad unloading and material storage yard now in the path of airport expansion at a cost of $125,000.

Abel Terms

The agreement would permit Abel to remain on the 14-acre tract on a year-to-year basis for $5,000 per year until the site is actually needed for airport construction. The anticipated limit is 3 years.

Abel has proposed to relocate on an 8.8-acre tract near the Municipal Airport access road and Hwys. 2-34 for which the City Council has agreed to issue a 6-year special use permit rather than heavy industry zoning.

Chauncey Barney, the Authority's attorney, said the Abel company will notify the Burlington that the arrangements are satisfactory on the basis of the letter agreement.

He said Burlington wants to know that Abel is satisfied before signing the $271,610 track relocation agreement.

Resolution authorizing the signing of a project application when completed, an agency agreement with the state aeronautics department, and a financial assistance agreement with the department, were also authorized.

Work Remaining

Remaining to be authorized at next Tuesday's meeting is a Union Pacific agreement, cost estimates with utility companies for relocation or adjustment of utilities, and a resolution authorizing notice to contractors.

Beck said the Authority hopes to be able to set contract letting on the airport runway and other work prior to the June 30 deadline for signing the federal grant agreement.

If firm contract prices are available prior to the June 30 signing, these figures are accepted in the agreement rather than estimates, which establish a ceiling under the federal government participates.

Beck Back As Airport Bd. Chief

Leo J. Beck Jr. was re-elected chairman of the Airport Authority by board members Thursday.

Beck has served as chairman since August, 1959.

Other officers re-elected were Charles Stuart, vice chairman; Robert Phillips, secretary, and Jack M. Pace, assistant secretary.

Beck named Fred Eiche and Phillips, board members, and Rolland Harr, executive director, to serve as the 1962-63 budget committee.

Beck also reported negotiations are underway with the Housing Authority for a new rental agreement on the Huskerville housing area.

The present rental agreement calls for $1,000 monthly payments to the Authority. Authority officials have indicated the rate should be increased.

Also appointed was a committee to negotiate new rental agreement with the two airport operators and Federal Aviation Agency office at Union Airport.

$1.2 Million Recreational Plan Revealed

Washington (AP) — Army Engineers have plans for a $1.2-million program to develop recreational facilities at Missouri River Reservoirs in South Dakota within the next 3 years.

Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., in reporting this Thursday, said the proposed program includes $484,000 for Big Bend, $295,000 at Fort Randall, $280,000 at Oahe and $179,000 for Gavins Point.

The Engineers' expenditures for recreational developments at 3 of these reservoirs — none has been done at Big Bend — already totals about $853,500.

Information on these long-range plans for the area was furnished to the Senate Appropriations Committee, of which Mundt is a member, by Brig. Gen. William R. Shuler, Missouri River Division engineer.

About $134,000 of the work proposed around Gavins Point Dam is scheduled for individual areas in Nebraska. The Oahe proposal also includes some $50,000 on North Dakota areas.

The rest of the work is ticketed for South Dakota areas.

Mundt had informed Gen. Shuler that a number of persons in the state felt the progress on such recreational development was too slow.

"I feel that we are going along at a pretty good clip," Gen. Shuler observed.

Daly Firm Cited

Omaha (AP)—The Omaha architectural and engineering firm of Leo A. Daly Co. said it was one of 9 firms in that field cited by the Air Force systems command "in recognition of their outstanding contribution to the ICBM program." The Omaha firm is engaged in all 3 ICBM programs—Titan, Atlas and Minuteman.

Beck Says Board To Discuss Bond Issue For Airport

Chairman Leo Beck Jr. said the Airport Authority will discuss possible bond financing of the local share of the proposed $3.2 million Municipal Airport program at next Tuesday's meeting.

Meanwhile, Beck said, a letter of credit from two Lincoln banks — National Bank of Commerce and First Continental National Bank — will be submitted to the Federal Aviation Agency.

The federal agency requires assurance that financing for the local share of an airport improvement project is available before approving a project application and a federal grant.

Authority officials have said the letter of credit is acceptable until bonds are authorized.

"We don't know yet whether revenue bonds or bonds tied to a ¾-mill levy will be issued," Beck said.

The Authority may levy up to ¾ of a mill for airport purposes.

The Authority has not publicly discussed the amount of bonds that may be required.

The Authority's share of the proposed $3.2 million airport expansion program will be approximately $1.6 million.

Victor L. Toft Dies; Business Executive, NU Alumni Head

Death has claimed Victor L. Toft, 64-year-old Omaha business executive and president of the University of Nebraska Alumni Association.

He died Wednesday following a heart attack at Lugano, Switzerland, where he and his wife were on the first tour sponsored by the Alumni Association. The group of 86 tourists left from Chicago by air May 1 and is scheduled to return May 23.

'23 Graduate

Mr. Toft, a 1923 graduate of NU, became president of the Alumni Association last June.

A native of Ruskin, he also attended Peru State Teachers College, and coached athletics at Superior. He was associated with the First Trust Co. of Lincoln for a brief time after his graduation.

In 1929 he went to work for the Nebraska Buick Automobile Co., and in 1939 became sales manager of Sidles Co. At the time of his death he was executive vice president and secretary-treasurer of the Sidles firm.

Mr. Toft was elected first president of the Automotive Service Industry Association in 1959, and received a trophy as "Automotive Man of the Year."

In Omaha he was a past Kiwanis Club president; past general chairman of the Omaha Community Chest, and recently served as vice president of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce.

Ex-Head of KFAB

He was a former president of KFAB, Omaha radio station. He was also a member of the board of directors of Woodmen Accident and Life Company of Lincoln.

Mr. Toft received a citation in 1959 from Parsons College, Fairfield, Ia., awarding him the degree of "doctor of laws."

Surviving are his wife, the former Frances A. Westering; a daughter, Mrs. Robert (Marilyn) Pelley of Lincoln; a son, Thomas, senior at the University College of Medicine; 4 brothers, 4 sisters, and two grandchildren.

'Great Friend'

Chancellor Clifford M. Hardin said, "The University of Nebraska has lost a great friend and counselor. He was intensely interested in his native state and in opportunities for young people. Alumni throughout the state and nation know well of his effective leadership as president of the Nebraska Alumni Association. He has led a vigorous and productive life."

Alumni Association secretary Arnold Magnuson said: "His loss comes as a great shock to the many alumni who knew him well and respected him as a vigorous leader."

Urban Renewal Opposition Sets Radio Speeches

Three radio broadcasts dealing with urban renewal have been scheduled by the Freedom Volunteers organization for Friday, Saturday and Monday.

The 10-minute programs will be broadcast at 6:20 p.m. by KLMS, Elinor Brown, secretary-treasurer of the organization, said.

Donald Wood will speak Friday on urban renewal in other cities. Miles Johnston, an attorney, will explain the power of eminent domain and its relation to urban renewal Saturday.

Monday's program will feature Victor Lacey, a University of Nebraska student, who will present the background of the federal government in urban renewal.

ALERT GROCER NABS TEENAGE CHECK RING

An alert Lincoln grocer was instrumental in nipping a teenage check-passing ring in the bud, police said Thursday.

Two of 3 teenagers in the ring walked into the Serveall Super Market at 3308 A late Thursday afternoon and tried to pass a bad check.

Manager N. E. Bernstein of 2305 Lake apprehended the two teenagers and held them until detectives arrived.

A 3rd ring member was apprehended later. The teenagers had succeeded in passing 6 bad checks, and planned more, police said.

The checks ranged in amounts from $2 to $25, and totaled $81.

Two of the teenagers were released to their parents. The 3rd one — currently on juvenile probation — was taken to the county detention home.

119 Graduates

Norfolk — Val Peterson of Hastings, former Nebraska governor and ambassador to Denmark, will give the commencement address for the 119 Norfolk Junior College graduates Thursday, May 31. This year's class sets a new record for the college.

ANSWER by OUR

To what extent can I express myself about various phases of urban renewal after the Authority has been created?

Whenever the Authority is prepared to submit a redevelopment plan the City Council is required by the state law to hold a public hearing on it. Public notice must be given of the time, date, place and purpose of the hearing and all interested parties must be afforded an opportunity to be heard.

What is the real issue in this election?

The real issue is whether or not we, the voters of Lincoln, are willing and ready to give to our elected governing body, the City Council, the right to create an Urban Renewal program and to proceed under the Urban Renewal Law of the State of Nebraska.

We are not voting on where urban renewal will take place or how it will be financed or whether or not it will be necessary to relocate people and where they shall be relocated. All of these decisions can be made only after extensive study by the urban renewal board after it has been appointed.

The real issue is whether or not we have confidence in our local government and wish it to have modern tools with which to work.

Confinement At An End

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

The city's Park and Recreation Advisory Board has once again taken a look at Lincoln's swimming program and started making plans for the future. With three pools in operation and two more expected to be completed this summer, it can be said that Lincoln has done very well in this area of recreation in recent years. It is, in fact, probably the most outstanding thing in our recreation program.

And if the plans of the advisory board materialize, the end of new pool construction is not yet in sight.

Increase In Fees

The board has recommended a hike in swimming fees to help the accumulation of funds toward a new pool in Woods Park at 33rd and O. The increase would be slight, from 15 to 20 cents for childlren under 12 and from 25 to 35 cents for adults. It is important that the city always keep in mind its public service responsibility and not get the cost of these services out of line. It will do no good to have plenty of pools if the cost of using them becomess prohibitive.

In fact, too large an increase in rates will have an adverse effect—will cause people to stay away or at least go to the pools with less frequency. With this in mind, however, it would appear that the increase recommended is justified. It is not out of line with fees in most areas or in comparison with other forms of recreation or entertainment. It is a practical approach, too, to attempt to meet part of the needs of the future out of current earnings.

The wisdom of the city in providing good pool facilities is attested to by the crowds which can be found in the water during the summer. Soon the areas will once again be crowded with laughing children and adults enjoying a leisurely day in the sun and a refreshing dip in the cool water.

Swimming, of course, is just one of the many activities that are now getting under way. It won't be long, either, before the parks are crowded as people get away from the routine and into a little bit of relaxation. Already, most families have dug into the basement litter to find the thermos jug, the picnic basket, the portable grill and other things. Picnics are something which have maintained their popularity in spite of heavy competition from many other things. As usual, Lincoln residents will find the parks this summer an inviting place to relax. There will be some new equipment and new facilities; wood for the fireplaces is cut and ready and picnic tables are all fixed up for the upcoming season.

What there is about a family picnic may be hard to put your finger on but it has an appeal all its own. Children would just as soon have an outing in the park as they would almost anything else. They like to get outside where there are no demands for holding back their energies. Perhaps that is the reason adults also like the experience —it permits them to relax and forget about the limitations that generally apply in so many other activities. Informal clothes are the order of the day. Comfort is the keynote rather than style or appearance and while you may want to appear neat, the apparel demands are at a minimum. The affair is best when cooking is done at the site. The family seems to go all-out for anything cooked out of doors. They will consume twice as much in the open air as they would around the dinner table at home.

A plain old hamburger may not be a fashionable menu item but it is the biggest seller on the picnic menu. It is at such affairs as these that the men often shine. This gives them a chance to show how useful they are and how dependent upon them are the other members of the family. Very carefully, they select a picnic table that is well shaded and near a fireplace.

With this difficult job completed (no one else, of course, could have done it), they proceed to gather wood for the fire. This too, is a vital job since the food cannot be cooked without a fire. The fact that it is probably all cut for them and stacked nearby is only an irrelevant side issue. The husband provides the fuel and this is a proper exercise of his responsibility.

Then, he lights the fire which, again, is a job only he could possibly do. From that point on what he does differs with the individual. Some go all the way and even fry up the hamburgers and heat the beans. This is supposed to impress the rest of the family with the gentleman's truly independent nature — to show that he could get along quite well in this world if left to his own devices. He might get awfully tired of hamburgers after a few weeks of them but this is something that isn't supposed to be mentioned.

Self-Sufficient Man

Most likely, this is the absolute limit of his responsibility. At least, it is all he cares to exercise. He then sits himself down to partake of the food, leaving the care of the children to someone more experienced at this. After all, he has already proven how efficient he is so there is no need to go on and convince anyone that his abilities are actually unlimited.

Empty Saddle In The Old Corral

Political Zoning

The City-County Planning Commission has quite properly turned down a proposed change in the zoning law to permit cement batching and storage operations in the "rural and public use" districts. The change is being proposed specifically to permit the City Council to grant a special permit to Abel Construction Co. to operate where it wants to near the Municipal Airport.

There is not much real doubt that the change will be made by the council over the objections of the commission. There is not much doubt, either, that the Abel company will be paid pretty well what it wants for leaving a tract of land in the area that is needed for airport improvements. The situation is a sorry one and one which shows a lack of spine on the part of the council and the Airport Authority.

Regardless of other parties and the right or wrong of their position, the council and authority have failed so far to stand up for what is right. They have compromised all along the way and all indications are that they intend to pursue this approach to their problem until it is settled to the satisfaction of the construction firm involved and the Burlington Railroad.

The precedent that is being set is a dangerous one in that it encourages indiscriminate use of land without regard to zoning and then payment for any future adherence to the zoning law. It appears certain, too, that the authority will pay heavily to acquire the land it needs from Abel and the Burlington. All of this will make everything go much more smoothly but the price of this smoothness makes it about the worst bargain the people ever got.

The Red Delusion

Said Gherman Titov, Russia's spaceman: "I don't believe in God. I believe in man, his strength, his possibilities and his reason."

Referring to his world girdling flight he said he had seen neither God nor angels as he passed through space.

We will accept his statement as an expression of his personal views and experiences. But because he made it we cannot accept him as either a reasonable man, nor his communist thinking as consistent, nor his statements as fact.

Major Titov did not see angels. Neither did he see the physical principles which made his flight possible. Nor did he see the courage that prompted him to step into his space capsule. Nor did he see the radio impulses which supported his communication with the earth. If Major Titov and his kind are going to reject what they can't see then they have reached the end of their development and also of their reason.

It is proper to have faith in the developing abilities of humankind, but it is also necessary to keep them in true perspective. They are the result of discovery and application of cosmic principles. There is an infinite difference between applying principles and being the source of them. Communism did not write the principles. No human being did that.

The communist delusion will never change nature's laws one whit so there is no concern on that point, but it is a delusion of formidable social significance. Everyone is in danger when in the company of those who cannot think straight.

Keeping Perspective

The Billy Sol Estes case in Texas has all the earmarks of a powder keg.

With seeming wizardry this Pecos, Texas, man amassed a huge fortune in an incredibly short time, operating in many ways, but largely in fields of agriculture, and in that part of agriculture where government figures in terms of privilege and restraint, and in public money. He dealt in cotton allotments, became a dominant figure in government grain storage. And before it all blew up he had almost gathered in the whole field of anhydrous fertilizer.

Now he stands heavily in debt to private financial concerns for chattel mortages they claim were phony. He is under the additional federal affliction of $554,162 in marketing penalties and has declared himself bankrupt. His rise and fall has cast a cloud of suspicion over some federal farm administration figures on the general presumption that he could not have grown so big without preferential treatment. This gives the case strong political connotations.

Let the chips fall where they may and justice be done. But before the case develops into a piece of political hatchet work a few facts should be kept in mind. One is that the Estes connection with the agricultural program was in existence as early as 1958 and thus in some degree involves both the Republican administration of Ezra Taft Benson and the Democratic administration of Secretary Orville Freeman. As yet the involvement, even by suspicion, of the principal and several individuals of the federal administration is not an indictment of the government but of some individuals.

If wrong has been done the lapse of time between the wrong and its discovery is no more a discredit to the administration than to the private finance institutions which accepted mortgages in good faith and were in no position to act until there was specific evidence that the paper was of questionable worth. What is important is what is to be done after the facts come to light.

Tell It To The Reds Themselves

WASHINGTON — "Study groups on communism" are popping up like dandelions on a spring lawn these days, which leads me to write further on "Pearson's seven points to combat communism." One supplementary point is not to be afraid to stand up and talk to the communists.

In this connection, Sen. Allen Ellender of Louisiana, one of the more conservative solons and not afraid to talk, arranged for the first secretary of the Soviet embassy to go to New Orleans to address the Young Businessmen's Club and answer all questions.

After Ellender served as arranger, the invitation was officially extended by the New Orleans Young Businessmen, and officially accepted by the Soviet first secretary.

Then, suddenly, it was withdrawn.

Subsequently, Congressman Eddie Hebert of New Orleans, a past president and life member of the Young Businessmen, attended the inauguration of George Connally as president, and made a little speech.

"Instead of passing a lot of resolutions," he said, "why don't you be more resolute?

"You talk a lot about fighting communism, yet the first time you get a chance to face a communist you run for cover. You give the communists a chance to say, 'They're afraid even to talk.'"

The fact is that a great many Russians are coming to the United States these days and many of them are talking quite frankly. Even at home they are more frank than permitted in the past. Gripe letters even appear in the "letters to the editor" column, complaining about what's wrong with the agriculture program or the industrial program. One letter in Izvestia, edited by Khrushchev's son-in-law, was signed last month by seven ballerinas from the famous Kirov Ballet complaining that the director of the ballet, Konstantin Sergeyev, was using the troupe to advance his own career.

The ballerinas also complained about something this column has griped about on the part of American congressmen — nepotism. Sergeyev, they charged, was advancing the career of his wife ahead of others.

Several of the ballerinas who signed the letter had starred while on the ballet's tour of the United States and even complained that they scored a big success while in the USA, but were sidetracked in favor of Sergeyev and his wife when they returned to Russia.

The amazing fact about this letter was, first, that it was written; second, that it was published. It indicates a new freedom to talk back under Khrushchev's more moderate policy which never would have been permitted under Stalin or under Molotov who now wants to reinstate Stalin's tough regime.

DORIS FLEESON

Senate Fails On Illiteracy Bill

WASHINGTON — Former President Eisenhower has been fretting about modern devotion to the twist in preference to the minuet. The United States Senate has responded with a rather unusual combination of both on civil rights legislation.

A Senate majority first went through the customary stately paces in defense of unlimited debate, thus blocking a federal law to provide that a sixth-grade education was an automatic literacy qualification for voting.

A much bigger majority then seized the opportunity guaranteed it by a technical maneuver to record its overwhelming sentiment in favor of the bill itself.

As a practical matter, what the Senate said was that if it had not tied its hands with the unlimited debate (cloture) rule it had just voted again to defend, it would release the literacy bill from bondage. The only real question remaining is whether anybody is listening to the Senate any more in matters of this kind.

The evidence suggests that most voters, certainly those to whom civil rights issue are important, look now for leadership to the President and the Supreme Court in that area. Both the executive and legislative branches of the government are fighting the battle and wielding all the potential influence on the political power structure of the country.

A new cloture petition is being set up, but the Senate will return to the struggle in an even more cynical atmosphere — if that is possible — than obtained earlier. Even senators tittered when Sen. Richard Russell gibed at the situation of the leaders.

None had distinguished themselves. Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield mustered 30 votes for cloture but lost 30. Republican Leader Everett Dirksen got only 12 of his minority to vote with him for cloture while 23 voted to uphold unlimited debate.

It rather looks at this point as if some bright New Frontiersman outmaneuvered the opposition on the bill in question. For its purpose is copied almost word for word from the 1960 Republican platform which states: "We pledge — legislation to provide that the completion of six primary grades in a state-accredited school is conclusive evidence of literacy for voting purposes."

Sen. Bourke Hickenlooper of Iowa, chairman of the Republican Policy Committee, is among the majority of the minority who decided not to honor that pledge.

The 1960 Democratic platform also inveighed against literacy tests but not in such specific language. That party does not keep all its civil rights promises, either, but minorities have repeatedly shown that it considers the fact of presidential leadership in the field, plus the party's social and economic record, as grounds for forgiveness of some error.

THE NEIGHBORS SAY

Last Of The Corn-Picking

By MONA B. PARKER

Editor Bernie Wimmer expresses the wish in the Oxford Standard that science might apply its combined skill and knowledge "to come up with something that will make my blue grass grow as fast and healthy as my dandelions and make the dandelions grow as slowly and die as quickly as my blue grass."

☆ ☆ ☆

The Pawnee Republican reports that in "this crazy mixed-up spring of ours," milo was harvested there the day before Easter. Two days after one farmer picked a field of corn, he sowed alfalfa on the same ground. And the last corn in the neighborhood was picked one week before the first field was planted.

There was a story or two about the boys in blue . . .

One of Holdrege's city policemen got a frantic call at the station one morning from a lady in distress who needed help. When she had opened the car door that morning, two mice jumped out, and she wanted protection. The woman was the officer's wife . . .

Chadron's street department was in the process of changing parking meter locations. A woman driver pulled up to the curb, put money in the slot, and went shopping. Later, returning, she was slightly shaken to find the meter missing. She hailed a policeman and told him not to give her a parking ticket, since she was positive she had put money in the meter. The lawman explained the whole situation to the confused shopper . . .

A Sioux City couple were on their way to Elgin for the weekend. Elgin was the wife's home town and the husband would have preferred to stay home. Discussion on the matter reached rather a heated stage and the husband stopped the car, got out and started walking back to Sioux City. The wife drove on down the road a way, then stopped, made a U-turn and started back for her husband. A patrolman saw the U-turn and stopped her, asking the identity of the man. When she told him, he shook his head and waved her on her way. "I was going to give you a ticket," he consoled, "but I see you have troubles enough."

Cary Reynolds, columnist for the Curtis Enterprise, describes the makin's of something her readers have been curious about — the "brown" gravy of pioneer days. Her mother would take two cups of flour, she said, place that in a heavy iron skillet and set it over the fire in the old cook stove, stirring it constantly with a heavy cooking spoon or wooden paddle to keep the flour from burning. When the flour was a light brown, it was turned out onto a large baking pan and spread out to cool. Added to drippings from baking or frying meat, the gravy thus created was a special treat on potatoes or hot soda biscuits.

A Bertrand Herald writer was thinking back to childhood days, also, and the edibles then that loomed big in a child's mind. One of his fondest hopes, he remembered, was that some day the grocery list might include a big jar of olives. This delicacy was reserved only for company.

And then there were store-bought cookies which he yearned for in vain. The only ones purchased were the practical type, washboard or gingersnaps. But the ones eyed with longing by a 10-year-old were the marshmallowy chocolate-covered kind. His mother didn't think they got their money's worth out of such froth.

"Now that I am grown up and able to buy what I please, these things aren't nearly so glamorous."

Mary Packwood of the Johnson County Courier at Sterling is doing battle with Myrtle. Not a rival news woman, there are no smoking typewriters involved, nor a crossfire of words flying back and forth. The weapons are a flailing hoe on the one hand and pure tenacity on the other. Years ago, Mrs. Packwood explains regretfully, when nothing seemed to want to grow in their backyard, she planted three little sprigs of Creeping Myrtle. Now Myrtle has simply taken over and Mary can go, but she won't. She is determined to be rid of the vine at all costs. "Don't ever let ONE LEAF of that pesky stuff even drop on your land," she advises.

To His Benefit

Lincoln, Neb.

I come from the opposite side of the tracks from the big businessmen of this community. I think I have studied their tax stand as much as any hourly rated employe. I firmly believe the people of the hard-bitten business world favor issues that will give them the best results for the lowest taxes. It is my opinion this is the reason the local Chamber of Commerce favors a sales tax and also the reason they support urban renewal.

Now, don't tell me they are all developers who will fatten up on urban renewal. I can tell you their high-priced real estate is all on the tax rolls and they know what ¾ of a mill will cost them. And don't kid yourself that they don't know the problems of assessed valuation and how much more it will cost them if urban renewal doesn't pass.

All property in Lincoln and Nebraska is taxed by a formula based on market value —the big department store, the factory and my home— so if they are going to get a better bargain, then I am going to get a bargain of the same proportion, and I challenge anyone to disprove this.

But dollars and cents don't rank as high with me as human values. If I thought for one minute there was going to be any hardship and deprivation connected with urban renewal, I would definitely vote against it. This image is a hypothetical and emotional thing fostered by those who rate urban renewal as something sinister or in the same category as Social Security, railroad retirement, medical care for the aged and, of all things, the farm program.

I want to be on the opposite side from these people, and I am proud to join my business friends, both political parties, and the National AFL-CIO in the support of progress and urban renewal.

Small Difference

Lincoln, Neb.

Thanks to The Star for giving us facts with respect to urban renewal.

A study of the city of Rochester, New York (which can be generalized) has just come to my attention, one paragraph of which reads:

"Coupled with overcrowding was the fact that there was only a slight difference in amount of rent paid by the residents in the whole of the dilapidated area and that paid by residents in the rest of the city. This is reflected in the median rent for the whole city (in 1950) which was $40.07, while it was $39.01 in the dilapidated area. The dwelling units were generally smaller and older than in the city, so that in proportion to value received, the rentals in the dilapidated area were more costly."

It has been interesting to learn that the difference in average monthly rental for deteriorating housing and for sound housing in Lincoln is also very small.

It is hard to see how anyone who takes pride in Lincoln could oppose urban renewal.

The woman who sails around under the nom de plume of "Morrison Campaign Contributor" forgets a whole lot. She forgets that there are other young women who belong to the Democratic party and support it who have a just right to hold the job that she is holding. She doesn't belong to the Democratic party. Why should she expect anything from a party she doesn't belong to?

She feels outraged in being asked to contribute something to the Morrison campaign. She evidently wants the Democratic party to provide her a meal ticket! What has she ever done for the Democratic party to deserve it? She should have resigned her job, but she didn't. She paid the price and now she is crying about it. The facts are that she has raised a "smoke screen" through which there is evident intent of trying to woo back the Republicans in Lancaster County who voted for Morrison two years ago. The latest poll shows that over 50 per cent of them will vote for him again if he is renominated.

State High Court To Answer 2 Major Constitutional Questions Next Term

By WILLIAM A. STEPHENS
United Press International

Two major questions of constitutionality marked the 1961-62 term of the State Supreme Court, with two other major questions remaining unanswered until the 1962-63 term.

The major question answered by the high court during the term ending May 31 came when the court ruled on Jan. 19 that disputed portions of the state's industrial development act granting a city or county permission to use its financial credit to buy and lease land for industrial development are constitutional.

This paved the way for Lancaster County, the first governmental unit to test LB 159, to issue $3 million of its revenue bonds for the development of a plant facility for the parent company of a Delaware laboratory firm.

In the second highly controversial test action, the court on May 4, declared that a car dealers tax passed by the 1961 Unicameral was unconstitutional in that it constituted a release of motor vehicle dealers from a proportionate share of the overall tax burden.

Under LB489, motor vehicle dealers were permitted to receive credit on their ad valorem tax assessment for the period in which vehicles were sold between Jan. 1 and July 1.

Officials of the Nebraska Car Dealers Association, who fought for the law in the high court, have not indicated yet whether they will ask for a rehearing of the case.

The court will adjourn with action still pending on the question of whether the State Railway Commission or the federal government has control over the intrastate air travel of Frontier Airlines in Nebraska.

Also still unanswered is the question of whether the individual customer or the power districts in the state have authority to say who shall have the final decision on who will serve the customer.

Frontier Segment 13

In what is tabbed as the probably major decision to come out of the 1962-63 term, the high court must rule whether Frontier Airlines can drop or add service in the state without the permission of the State Railway Commission.

The Civil Aeronautics Board has ordered Frontier to drop service to segment 13 of its northern route in Nebraska, but the commission has ordered that the service continue. Frontier suspended service on the route in December, but has been ordered by the commission to resume flights by June 6.

If the state court affirms the commission's action, it is thought the airlines will appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court for final adjudication.

Fremont Power Action

In the power action, the court must rule whether a firm located outside the city limits of Fremont should be served by Omaha Public Power District (OPPD), as the firm requests, or by the city of Fremont, which both the city and OPPD request.

At issue is the basic question of who has the authority to say who will serve a power customer when the customer resides within two overlapping power districts.

Other important decisions which will probably come prior to the court's convening in September involve the constitutionality of state laws regulating non-public schools and the procedure for the annexation of land to first class cities.

The school action came after the State Board of Education threatened to close a private school in Richardson County because the tutor hired by a religious association does not hold a valid teaching certificate in Nebraska.

The annexation question is to test a Grand Island city ordinance concerning the procedure for annexing land to the city.

In other major decisions during the 1961-62 term the court:

—Affirmed a Hall County District Court decision finding State Sen. Marvin Lautenschlager of Grand Island guilty of breaching his fiduciary duty in a real estate transaction. The decision led to the revocation of the license by the State Real Estate Commission.

—Declared that the Omaha Education Association Manor in Omaha is not used exclusively for religious and educational purposes and is subject to taxation.

—Affirmed a Dawson County District Court decision that a county is not an insurer of the safety of the bridges it constructs and maintains upon highways for public use.

—Declared the State Railway Commission does not have jurisdiction over the financial affairs of United Air Lines.

—Entered a restraining order against former Liquor Commissioner Frank Sorrell preventing him from holding the office of state liquor commissioner after his ouster by Governor Morrison.

—Ruled that an injury sustained by an employe while he is going to and from his work does not arise in the course of his employment unless it occurs on the property of the employer.

Alexandria Dial Phones Readied

Dial telephone service will be inaugurated at Alexandria on June 6, the Lincoln Telephone & Telegraph Company said Thursday.

Installation of the central office equipment will be completed about May 15, after which lines will be tested. Tel phones have been changed to dial instruments.

Rail Crossing Mishap Kills Omaha Driver

Mead (AP) — Richard Combs, 25, of Omaha was killed early Thursday when his car was in collision with a Union Pacific freight train about 1½ miles east of here.

Authorities said one freight car was derailed and about 100 feet of track torn up. The Combs' car reportedly struck a freight car about three quarters of the way back from the engine.

Combs was alone in the car.

The death raised the state highway fatality toll for the year at 95, compared with 101 a year ago.

Senate Group Reportedly Okays Park Office Move From Omaha

Washington (AP) — The Senate Appropriations Committee was reported to have agreed Thursday to use of Park Service funds for the proposed transfer of its regional headquarters from Omaha to Cheyenne, Wyo., if a current study supports the move.

The action, it was reported, came in defeat of a motion which would have stricken certain language from a report approved by a subcommittee which handled the Interior Department money bill.

The subcommittee language which remains in the report on the basis of the 14-10 vote.

Nebraska News

said in effect that the Park Service should not be tied down by action taken previously by the House Appropriations Committee.

The House Committee said it did not believe the proposed move was warranted and vetoed use of any funds for the purpose.

However, the Senate Subcommittee reportedly took the position that Secretary of Interior Stewart L. Udall had said the department would restudy the question and that he should be free to act upon the basis of the study when it is completed.

Two other moves in connection with the proposed shift also were said to have been defeated by the Senate Committee, meeting in closed session to consider the department's appropriation bill for the year starting July 1.

One of these was said to have been an attempt to require approval by both the House and Senate Appropriations Committees before any such move could be made.

Another would have stricken out of the Senate Subcommittee report any direct reference to move the headquarters from Omaha to Cheyenne.

The question thus probably will become an issue between the two branches of Congress after the Senate acts on the interior bill.

Air Force Colonel Has Rare Job—Education

By WOODY HOWE
Star Staff Writer

Col. Herbert O. Hamilton has a job fairly rare among Air Force officers — he is in the education business.

As commander of the newly-created 3507th USAF Recruiting Group, with headquarters at Lincoln Air Force Base, his job as he conceives it is to sell education first, and the Air Force second, to high school seniors and juniors in 11 midwestern states.

Hamilton

He makes quite clear that neither his nor the Air Force's philosophy is to recruit high school boys and girls before their graduation.

"We'd better realise," he says, "that we have to utilize all the brains we have in this country, both militarily and industrially, to the ultimate degree. We can't afford to waste manpower."

So convinced of this is he that he is willing to lose potential recruits to colleges:

"I'd like to see 90% of high school graduates go on to college."

This is an unrealizable goal at present. But the former New Jerseyite and the 95 recruiting offices under his command can insist to a large extent on a high school diploma as prerequisite to enlistment.

Image Gone

In the first quarter, 1962, his group signed 3,099 recruits without prior service. Ninety per cent of them were high school graduates. The old image of the fast-talking recruiting sergeant who stops at nothing to get the big, husky high schooler to sign just doesn't hold now, the colonel believes.

Why? Because the Air Force has discovered, Col. Hamilton explains, that those with less education usually can't get along in the Air Force any better than they got along in high school.

As proof, he cites tables showing that 80% of the airmen dismissed as unsuitable in a given year had not graduated from high school.

They cost the Air Force $1,000 apiece, Col. Hamilton estimates.

"Our biggest problem is trying to convince the educators we don't want to see the boys leave school," he admits.

"But our whole recruiting campaign is predicated on honesty.

"In fact, many recruiters have been asked by school authorities and families to help persuade boys to stay in school," the commander says. The recruiters gladly help, for their job is to recruit quality, he emphasizes.

Col. Hamilton has commanded the 3507th group since its activation Jan 1. Forty officers, airmen and civilians are stationed at group headquarters.

One of 7 similar groups in the U.S., it has a territory of nearly 800,000 miles, embracing 3,047 high schools with 211,674 senior students.

Chiefs To Reassure Business

Hot Springs, Va. (AP) — The Kennedy administration will seek to assure top industrialists meeting here that it is as concerned about profits as they are — and is doing something about it.

The Treasury was described by administration sources Thursday as prepared to offer a pledge that it is working at a top speed to issue substantially liberalized tax writeoffs on business outlays for industrial machinery and equipment.

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon had planned to deliver this assurance in person to the spring session of the Business Council, which opens Friday.

Cancelled

However, he cancelled the appointment Thursday so as to be able to complete testimony in Washington before the Senate Finance Committee on the Kennedy administration's tax bill. Arrangements were made to have Undersecretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler appear with Dillon's message.

The secretary's report on his overhaul of depreciation schedules, administration sources said, is intended to refute charges that the administration is anti-business or insensitive to the cost squeeze on corporation profits.

Many businessmen who were angered by President Kennedy's dramatic and successful crackdown on the attempted steel price increase last month have said Kennedy's subsequent assurances of good will would be more effective if backed up by concrete evidence. Most have cited the depreciation allowances as a case in point.

The Lincoln Free Press Expands To Four Pages

The Lincoln Free Press, an experimental election edition newspaper produced each spring by the University of Nebraska School of Journalism, will grow from two to four pages this year.

Financed by the Readers Digest Foundation, the election issue covering Tuesday's primary will be written, edited and produced by students in University journalism classes.

Members of photography, editing, reporting and typography classes will form a day and evening "shift". Type will be set and engraving made by a downtown firm, but the press run of 1,000 copies will be made by students in Burnett Hall.

Managing editor Jim Forrest of Omaha will head the student staff. Day city editor will be Jim Woodson of Lincoln and night city editor will be Linda Albin of Kearney.

"This project will involve an experimental approach to the problems faced by evening papers on an election day and morning papers published the day after the election," said reporting instructor R. Neale Copple.

Besides covering election results, the paper will also report other news of the day and an effort will be made to background statistical results for the reader. In all, 24 pages will be written and laid out, although only four will actually be produced.

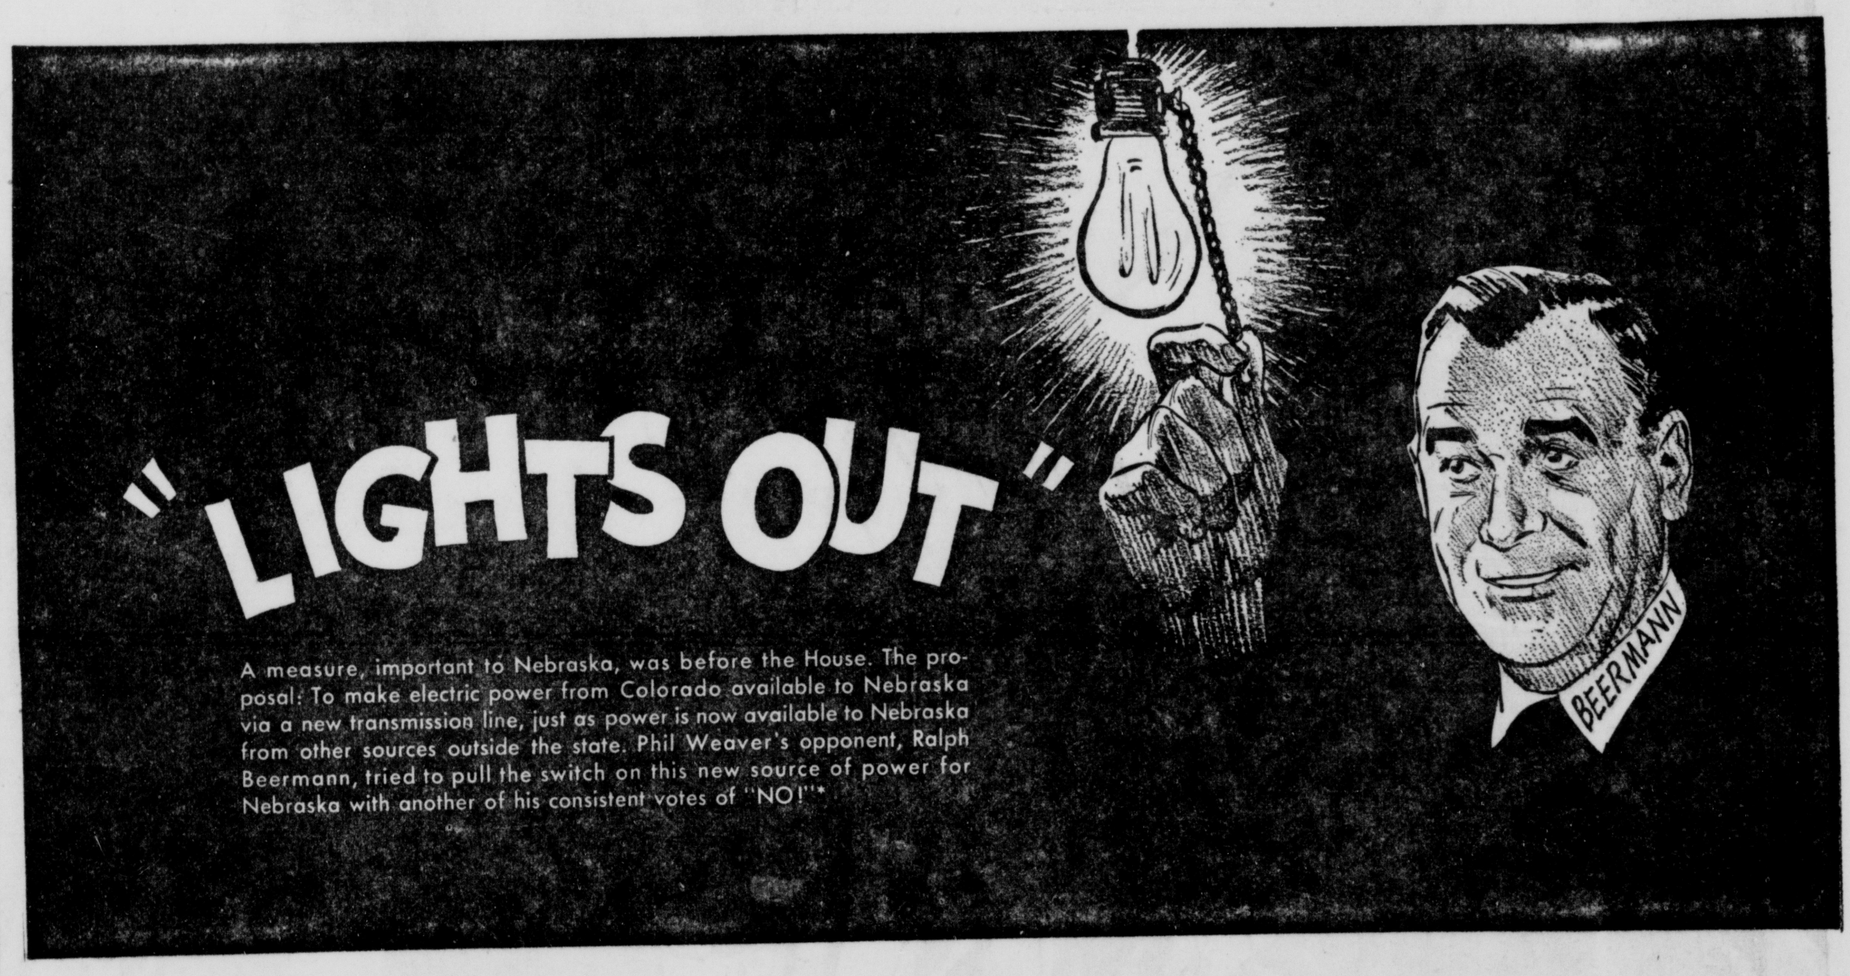
Nebraska Republicans Want a "Nebraska-Type" Republican in Congress



A measure, important to Nebraska, was before the House. The proposal: To make electric power from Colorado available to Nebraska via a new transmission line, just as power is now available to Nebraska from other sources outside the state. Phil Weaver's opponent, Ralph Beermann, tried to pull the switch on this new source of power for Nebraska with another of his consistent votes of "NO!"*

No "Dark-Age" Representation for Nebraska!

There are some people who always seem to oppose progress. They have a fear of change, a fear of what is new.

To them, to be "against everything," is the only mark of a conservative. "No" is their symbol.

Such as when Ralph Beermann voted against bringing needed electrical energy into Nebraska to further industry, business and agriculture.*

A "No" for John Glenn?

*And even more so... when Ralph Beermann voted against SPACE EXPLORATION! If such a vote had carried, John Glenn would not have been able to make his historic flight, one of the greatest demonstrations of American progress!

This is NOT the way of a "Nebraska-Type" Republican.

A "Nebraska-Type" Republican is a Republican noted for his courage to be "for"—or "against"—any measure, based on its merits. He wants progress. He wants a strong America. A free America. He wants to see America lead the world in every way.

A "Nebraska-Type" Republican wants no return to the dark ages.

Such a man is Phil Weaver, a true Nebraska-Type Republican.

Weaver's Record

Congressman for eight years, he sits on the powerful House Appropriations Committee. He has been waging a war of his own against waste in government—against foolish foreign aid appropriations—against unnecessary increases in government expenditures.

His record along these lines is so good that Republicans of the First District have overwhelmingly nominated him for Congress every term. And in the general elections he has always won. He's the kind of Republican Nebraskan's like and appreciate.

The Importance of Weaver's Seniority

His long years in Congress have given him Seniority. This means that he is one of the few Congressmen to be a member of the Appropriations Committee. Of the 50 states represented only 20 Republicans are on this important committee. Phil Weaver is one of these. Without Phil Weaver in the House, this vital committee membership would be lost to Nebraska.

Phil Weaver hasn't always been in Congress.

Before that he was an Oldsmobile dealer in Falls City. He knows what it is to meet a payroll and pay taxes.

During World War II he was a captain in the airborne infantry. He saw action in Europe. He knows the terrors of war and the necessity of winning the peace.

Phil Weaver is the kind of Republican who wants to keep America strong — militarily and economically. He knows that "dark-age" type thinking won't succeed in this space age world.

Vote for Phil Weaver, Tuesday, May 15.

Dawes Road Group Backs Strong Bid System

The Dawes County Road Improvement Committee has proposed a number of changes to improve the efficiency and economy of county government.

Among the suggestions:

—Establishment of a county highway superintendents.

—Consolidation of county equipment.

—Full use of the bid system in purchasing supplies and equipment.

—Put the county on "a cash basis of operation."

The committee said that it believes "the lease purchase (of machinery) agreement is a means to circumvent the legal requirement of obtaining bids on items above $2,000 in value, and that it may be used in instances when not necessary."

Cash Savings

Relating directly to purchasing, "savings made through cash purchases would no doubt be substantial," the committee noted.

Recommendations were contained in a 24-page booklet distributed by the committee.

"It is our opinion that sound planning requires the development of an annual road program projecting the principal improvements that are to be included during the ensuing 12 months," the report stated.

Detailed reports of mail route fund projects and more complete records on cost figures were also suggested.

Inventory

"Even small tools should be inventoried and labeled," the report declared.

Supply depots should be "strategically and permanently located . . . for the storage of all county road equipment and supplies, including such items as machinery, gasoline, oil, hand tools or other equipment," it said.

William E. Colwell, committee chairman, declared: "It is our opinion that if enough people become disturbed over inefficiencies and careless handling of public money, the total influence will be great enough to bring about improvements."

Push Jackal Hunts

Kampala, Uganda (AP) — Local chiefs are organizing jackal hunts to stamp out a spreading epidemic of rabies in the south Kigezi region of Uganda.

The disease is being transmitted by jackals to other wild beats, and to dogs, sheep and cattle.

Two Africans have died after being bitten by infected animals. Rabies has been a problem in the Congo and in neighboring Ruanda Urundi for the past 18 months.

Fairmont Acquires Pennsylvania Dairy

Omaha (AP)—Fairmont Foods Co., Omaha, announced Thursday it has acquired all the assets and business of Suncrest Farms, Inc., of Bethlehem, Pa., and associated companies in an exchange of stock.

Acquisition of the Pennsylvania dairy was announced earlier but the transaction was subject to clearance by regulatory bodies. Fairmont said the clearance now has been received.

Dry April Cuts Wheat Outlook

By the Associated Press

The U.S. Department of Agriculture in Washington Thursday clipped more than 7 million bushels from its month-ago estimate of the size of Nebraska's winter wheat crop.

Forecasters said the Nebraska crop, on the basis of May 1 conditions, can be expected to total 75,088,000 bushels. A month ago the estimate was 82,620,000 bushels.

Crop experts in Lincoln blamed April's dry weather for the declining yield prospects.

"April was one of the driest months we've had in quite some time," observed A. V. Nordquist, chief of the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics.

"Our western area is especially dry. And although subsoil moisture supply is fairly good — above average, in fact — the moisture supply in the first two feet of soil has been depleting rapidly because of windy weather and the lack of rain."

Since last Dec. 1, Nebraska's wheat crop yield prospects have declined by about 10 million bushels.

The new 75 million bushel forecast would put the 1962 crop 3.5 million bushels under the 1961 production.

Nationally the Agriculture Department estimated this year's winter wheat crop at 891,498,000 bushels.

Bid Date Set For Interstate Rest Areas

Bids on construction of truck weighing stations and two rest and information areas at the Greenwood interchange on Interstate Highway 80 between Omaha and Lincoln will be opened May 24. But a Department of Roads official said Thursday the rest area will not be available for the 1962 tourist season.

The shelter project carries a Sept. 1 completion date, according to Deputy State Engineer G. S. Strobel. There will be one rest area for eastbound traffic and another for westbound traffic. Each will have shelter buildings costing less than $2,000 each.

The truck weighing stations are due for completion by Nov. 17.

The structures will be the first of their kind on the Interstate in Nebraska. Rest areas will include concrete picnic shelters, toilet facilities and landscaping.

The Greenwood rest areas are the only ones definitely planed between Lincoln and Omaha on the Interstate, although the department is considering a tourist informaion site elsewhere, probably closer to the Platte River.

Weighing stations are expected to cost about $30,000 each.

Ex-Employe's Charge Denied By Morrison

A charge by a former state employe that coercion was used to collect funds for the campaign of Governor Morrison was hotly denied Thursday by the governor.

The governor also retaliated, charging that Maurice Jacobsen, former chief of the financial responsibility section of the State Motor Vehicles Department, should have made his charge against the late Alvin Scissors, then director of the department, "while Mr. Scissors was still alive and able to defend himself."

Jacobsen, a Republican was the first person to permit use of his name in connection with the Republican charge that some state employes were coerced into making political contributions.

Jacobsen, who had been in the Motor Vehicle Department for 11 years, was fired by Scissors in 1960.

Scissors said the move was part of a reorganization of the department, but Jacobsen immediately charged that the move was designed to eliminate him.

Morrison Thursday denied this was the reason.

Scissors, who died last summer, is the man who also figured in Republican charges regarding a $4,000 campaign loan made by a bank to Morrison and co-signed by Scissors.

Republicans have been calling for a full explanation of the loan and the source of the money used to repay it.

Jacobsen told The Star payments were collected for the Morrison campaign in the Motor Vehicles Department in October 1960.

"We were given to understand that if we valued our jobs we would pay," he declared.

The collection was not "a personal solicitation" by Scissors or any of his aides, but more "passing the hat from desk to desk," Jacobsen said.

No Record

No record was kept of who contributed or how much each individual gave, he said. Total collection, Jacobsen noted, was $175.

Jacobsen said that the same collection tactics used in the Department of Motor Vehicles were reported to him by friends in other departments.

In lashing back at Jacobsen, Morrison said that he understands what Jacobsen has charged occurred nearly two years ago.

"Why would he wait until shortly before an election two years later to make the charge?" he asked.

"Why hasn't Mr. Jacobsen ever communicated his complaint to the governor if justice rather than political motives prompt his complaint?" Morrison added.

Morrison challenged newsmen in the room while he was making the statement to make a survey of Republican personnel in the statehouse and report back to him what evidence of coercion they find.

They took 3 projects to the fair and won prizes for them all. More than 700 exhibits were shown.

Dick Way won first place in the Class A wrought iron metal division for his patio chair. His teacher in metal shop is Boyd Thompson.

Dwayne McNeil captured one of two awards given for ingenuity. He was given a trophy for his oscilliscope. His teacher is Evan Boiler.

Dick Way, under teacher Watson Coleman's guidance, won a trophy for his serving cart. It was one of 25 trophies given for the outstanding projects on exhibit.

It was the 4th year of the fair, but the first under sponsorshp of the Nebraska State Industrial Arts Assn.

JFK 'Daily Demands' Are Under Attack

Washington (AP) — Sen. Carl Curtis, Nebraska Republican, said President Kennedy has been making almost daily demands on Congress for more money or more power.

The senator said the President in the first 100 days of the present session of Congress had submitted 87 such requests.

Custis commented:

"For an executive to demand more power and more money as a solution to all problems is an old and doomed scheme.

"Leaders of governments which no longer exist made such demands. It is a reactionary and destructive trend in government."

Curtis said the President has made 62 requests for more spending and 25 for additional power.

Curtis' tabulation, which he called "Big Brother Government" listed a total of 40 requests in January, 13 in February, 20 in March and 14 up to April 30.

Food Party Participants Twist, Laugh & Listen

By HAL BROWN
Star Staff Writer

The women twisted . . . the main prize of the night became a little too excited while being shown to the audience . . . and the door prize consisted of two door knobs.

The occasion was billed as the IGA Food and Fun Cooking School and although the estimated crowd of 800, most of them wearing party hats, received no food, they did get in on the fun.

When members of the audience were asked to come on stage for a twisting contest, the plea drew 10 ladies ranging in age from 20 to near 70.

While a two-week-old pup (billed as the main prize) was being carried up and and down the aisles, he decided it was time for nature to take over. The pup wasn't a bit embarrassed, but his handler obviously was.

And when the door prize was awarded, it turned out to be two door knobs which were shared by two members of the audience.

The crowd of 800 was not confined to women. Nearly 50 men were scattered throughout the audience.

Why would men come to a cooking school?

Martha Logan, home economist, explained that the increased interest among men in cooking was due largely to the increase in outdoor cooking.

"The women tend to let the men do the cooking when it is taken outdoors and we have a great deal more of this activity than in recent years," she said.

Not Silent Types

"The men who come don't just come as listeners, either," she added. "I travel across the country on these schools and the men generally ask a large share of the questions."

She discounted the theory that most of the men come because their wives drag them along. "I notice at most meetings that many men come alone and there are always several bachelors," she explained.

She also pointed out that men are basically good cooks and generally need only a little practice to be quite proficient. "Most of our good chefs throughout the world are men," she concluded.

FRAMINI GOING TO SEE PERON

Buenos Aires, Argentina (AP) — Peronist leader Andres Framini left for Madrid Thursday, presumably to meet with exiled ex-dictator Juan D. Peron, an aide reported.

Framini was elected governor of Buenos Aires Province in the March 18 election that set off the crisis ousting Arturo Frondizi as president.

The new government of President Jose Maria Guido nullified Framini's victory along with victories of other Peronists.

Kennedy, Advisers Eye Laos Situation

Washington (AP) — President Kennedy was reported to have discussed the worsening situation in Laos with his diplomatic and military advisers Thursday, considering possible action the United States might take if a cease-fire cannot be quickly restored in the Southeast Asian kingdom.

Officials said the situation is regarded as serious but that the main weight of United States effort for the moment continues to be on putting an end to the new outbreak of fighting by restoring the cease-fire.

Pending further development the President made no new decisions, officials indicated, but Laos developments are being kept under constant study at the White House, State Department and Pentagon.

Washington authorities apparently were somewhat encouraged by the action of neutralist Prince Souvanna Phouma in calling on Communist Prince Souphanouvong to withdraw his Pathet Lao troops from Nam Tha and Muong Sing to the positions they held behind the cease-fire line before their attacks last week.

If the fighting can be halted U.S. officials foresee new efforts to set up a coalition government of Souvanna Phouma, Souphanouvong, and Premier Boun Oum.

If the fighting continues, however, the United States, informants indicated, will be faced with the problem of a decision on whether to take drastic new steps to strengthen the anti-communist government forces led by Gen. Phoumi Nosavan. Such steps conceivably could lead to some involvement of U.S. forces in the struggle to prevent Laos from being overrun by the communist-supported Pathet Lao rebels.

A Lot Of Dreaming

Toronto (AP) — The human being has to spend at least 20% of his sleeping time in dreams, Dr. Charles Fisher of Mount Sinai Hospital, New York, told the American Psychiatric Association convention here. And, he added, if a sleeper is awakened in mid-dream he'll make up the lost sequences at the next opportunity.

Estes Once Threatened To Embarrass Administration

Washington (AP)— Billie Sol Estes threatened last Oct. 18 to embarrass the Kennedy administration if the Agriculture Department did not drop an investigation of his cotton planting activities, an informant said Thursday.

But the investigation continued and resulted in a decision Nov. 3 to withhold Estes' allotments for the 1962 crop.

The 37-year-old West Texas financier, currently under indictment for fraud, made another visit to Washington Jan. 6, the source said, accompanied by his attorney.

By then, the department had decided to cancel Estes' 1961 allotments and Wednesday it announced it had levied marketing penalties against him which now total $554,162.

The department informant, who would not permit use of his name, said Estes and his attorney, John Dennison, met with Undersecretary of Agriculture Charles S. Murphy and department counsel John Bagwell in a vain attempt to convince them his cotton operations were legal.

In the mushrooming investigation of the Texan's manipulations, Senate investigators were reported checking into stores that some Washington politicians or their wives held financial interests in firms which profited from dealing with Estes.

They also have received reports that government-owned grain was shipped long distances to Estes storage elevators in Texas, bypassing closer facilities that were empty.

Blast In Toledo Claims At Least 5

Toledo, Ohio (AP) — At least 5 persons died Thursday in an explosion and fire that wrecked the Maumee Chemical Co. plant near downtown Toledo. More than 30 persons were injured.

The blast scattered debris over a 5-block area and shattered windows up to a half mile away.

Billowing clouds of multicolored smoke, apparently caused by burning chemicals, rose from the plant. At one point the smoke was a bright orange.

Fire Chief Arnold Papenhagen said at least two bodies could be seen in the flaming wreckage. Two persons were reported dead at St. Charles Hospital and another at St. Vincent's Hospital.

A company official, Bill Williams, said several employes were unaccounted for.

One of the injured, 46-year-old William Curry, was driving past the plant when the first explosion occurred. He said it "lifted my car right off the road." He suffered only minor injuries.

About 60 men were reported working in the building when the first of 3 explosions occurred. Fire and smoke, which followed the blasts, delayed a search of the debris for other possible victims.

The old 3-story brick building, a former brewery, is located on the east bank of the Maumee River near the Cherry Street Bridge and downtown Toledo.

STILL PROBING BABY'S DEATH

Lancaster County Attorney Paul Douglas said Thursday that investigation of the death of 15-month-old Barbara Ann Eastman was continuing but that there were no new developments in the case.

An autopsy showed that death did not result from drowning as believed earlier after the baby was found in the bathtub of her home at 3217 Y.

Senate Unit Nixes Tower Probe Bid

Washington (AP) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee Thursday dismissed a request by Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., that it investigate the dismissal of a 65-year-old Texas woman from the Peace Corps.

The committee, it was learned, discussed Tower's request at a closed door meeting but decided to take no action.

Earlier, Tower asked Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy to determine whether Peace Corps Director R. Sargent Shriver violated the law in using public funds to solicit congressional support for his agency.

Steelers Plead Innocent

New York (AP) —The nation's two largest steel producers, U.S. Steel and Bethlehem, pleaded innocent Thursday to federal charges of rigging bids and fixing prices on $100 million a year worth of metal forgings.

Two smaller steel companies, a trade association and 4 executives also entered pleas of innocent before Federal Judge Sidney Sugarman. He released the individual executives without bail and without setting a trial date.

Besides Bethlehem and U.S. Steel, the companies indicted April 26 under the Sherman Antitrust Act are Erie Forge and Steel Co., Midvale-Heppenstall Co., both steel firms, and the Open Die Forging Institute Inc., of New York, a trade association.

The individuals arraigned before Judge Sugarman were Erb Gurney and Robert S. Barnes of Bethlehem's forgings division; Emil Lang, board chairman of Erie Forge; and R. B. Heppenstall Sr., president of Midvale-Heppenstall.

Arraignment of Homer Lackey, president of Erie Forge, was put off until May 28 because he is recovering after an operation.

Midnight Mass on Christmas Eve in Mexico is called the Misa del Gallo, or Mass of the Cock. The name is derived from the Christian Roman practice of holding the first service at the cock's crow.

Railroader Returning Home

. . . SOVIET FLIRTATION 'DREADFUL MISTAKE'

London (AP) — A Philadelphia railroad worker headed home with his family Thursday night after a brief and costly flirtation with the Soviet way of life which he said was "a dreadful mistake."

The American, 32-year-old David Johnson, entered the final stage of his retreat from Moscow telling U.S. Embassy officials in London:

"I misjudged the whole situation. I am now going home to settle down and start all over again."

Then, just before boarding a plane to New York, Johnson told reporters:

Pick Up Pieces

"What it amounts to is that I have made a very tragic mistake involving my family, my wife and children. We are going home now to America to pick up the pieces of a very broken life."

In the hours before his New York flight, Johnson holed up in the embassy building along with his wife, Joanne, 30, and their 4-year-old twin sons, Cole and Lindsay.

The family sat disconsolately in one of the embassy lounges — left alone apart from periodic visits by officials dealing with their travel arrangmenets and office secretaries worried about the kids.

Very Unhappy

"Johnson is very unhappy and does not want to talk to the newspapers; neither does his wife," an embassy spokesman said.

The family, given a consular escort to London airport, had come through a 3-day ordeal cooped up at Tilbury docks on the Soviet liner Baltika.

British immigration officials refused permission for them to land after learning they had only about $450 left — not enough to pay their air passages back to the United States.

Put Up Balance

The ban was lifted only after Mrs. Johnson's father — John Zapenas of Manchester, N.H. — put up the balance of $300 dollars needed for Pan American Airline tickets.

Then a U.S. embassy driver called for the Johnsons at the docks. They were driven off at high speed with the camera-shy occupants ducking out of the range of waiting newsmen and photographers.

The Johnsons sold all their furnishings and most of their possessions in Philadelphia to finance their trip to the Soviet Union — and a new home in a new world.

Enchantment lasted little more than a week.

Ancient Ritual For Spiritual Flight

The spirit of Thomas Gilcrease, millionaire oilman who died Sunday, was sent on its journey to another world in ancient tribal rites performed by the Delight Makers of the Acoma Pueblo Indian Tribe. Wolf-Robe Hunt, holding the bow and arrow, lifts a handful of sacred cornmeal in his right hand, symbolizing food for the spirit on its journey to the happy hunting ground in the Tulsa, Okla., ceremonies. Gilcrease, who turned an Indian land allotment into an oil fortune later devoted his time and efforts to collecting examples of the culture of the American Indian.

St. Joseph Firm Low Bidder On Valentine Canal

Ainsworth (AP) — Bushman Construction Co., St. Joseph, Mo., was the apparent low bidder Thursday on construction of 14 miles of concrete lined canal for the Ainsworth irrigation project.

The Bureau of Reclamation reported the Bushman bid was $2,384,997.50 compared with a government estimate of $2,583,432. There were 3 other bidders.

The canal project is south of Valentine.

Blighted Area Taxes Lower, OUR Reports

The Organization For Urban Renewal (OUR) said Thursday that Lincoln owners of sound residences are paying 74% more in local taxes than owners of residences in blighted areas.

OUR officials said the findings resulted from a 6-week extensive study of tax valuation comparisons on thousands of residences.

"An urban renewal program will begin to remove this inequity," they said. "It will provide for safeguards that will assure the community that there will be no future blight build-up such as this."

The study revealed an estimated "deficit" or loss of taxes, by reason of decay, of about $191,367 in the 117 blocks classified as the most severe areas of bad housing by the 1960 census, OUR said.

OUR announced these highlights of its study:

—The average sound-residence owner pays approximately $124 more per year in local taxes than the owner of a residential structure in an area of blight.

—Based on a representative sampling, the average valuation of a residential structure in an area of dilapidation and deterioration is $2,080 as compared with $3,510 for the average sound residential structure in Lincoln.

—The 117 blocks classified as bad housing areas by the 1960 census were those having 25% of their structures classified as dilapidated or 75% as deteriorating, or both.

—The "blight bill" was figured on residential property, but the total amount "is undoubtedly much higher" than $191,367 annually because commercial structures were not taken into account.

Australia And America Agree On $156 Million Defense Installation

Canberra, Australia (AP) — Authoritative sources said the U.S. and Australian governments have agreed on construction of a $156.8 million U.S. Navy radio communications center in western Australia.

The agreement was reported reached by Australian Defense Minister Athol Townley and Adm. Harry D. Felt, chief of U.S. forces in the Pacific and Far East.

The sources said the base would be the biggest U.S. defense installation in the Southern hemisphere and would come under Adm. Felt's command.

Dear Abby

Dad, You're A Softie

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Do you think that two children, 14 and 16, who get a generous allowance, should put the arm on their father for extra money to buy a Mother's Day present? If I don't give it to them, they wouldn't have enough money to buy a Mother's Day gift and she would be hurt. I have been buying Mother her gift (from the children) for years, but want to know if you think it is right.

POP

DEAR POP: You are a softie. There would be more sentiment in a card, purchased with their "own" hard-saved money than a gift to Mother for which Father paid.

DEAR ABBY: I have always gotten a big kick out of your column but never thought I'd be writing in with a problem. Here it is: Every girl I date more than three or four times wants to get married. I am no Cassanova, Abby, but I have this trouble with every girl I start dating. I come from a well-to-do family and have no money worries, but I don't brag about it. I like girls but I don't enjoy being put on the spot with talk of marriage. I don't want to stop dating but can't think of any other way out.

J. F.

DEAR J. F.: I have some shattering news for you. ALL girls want to get married. And if you aren't in the market to buy, better not hang around the merchandise mart.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: A letter in your column interested me very much. It was from a boy who said he had been kissed in "Italian." I am an Italian musician and would like to know exactly what an Italian style kiss is. Thank you.

ANGELO

DEAR ANGELO: It starts out pianissimo, reaches a cresendo and winds up fortissimo. Yes, there is a repeat with a second ending.

☆ ☆ ☆

CONFIDENTIAL TO ALL MOTHERS ON MOTHER'S DAY: If you have no mother to remember on Mother's Day, remember your Father. I mean your Father in heaven. The One who remembered YOU with the privilege of becoming a mother.

☆ ☆ ☆

How's the world treating you? For a personal, unpublished reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY, care of this paper.

Varied Parties Enliven The Week In Suburbia

It has been a most social week, indeed, for the residents of suburbia who have been gathering at the homes of their neighbors for a variety of interesting reasons—bridge and babies, birthdays and basting threads. We also have news of travelers.

PARK MANOR

Leaving Lincoln today for Pella, Iowa, is Mrs. Glen V. VanZee who has a two-fold purpose for her trip—to attend the nationally famous Tulip Festival, and to visit her father, Gradus Klein, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Klein.

Completing the family gathering in Pella will be Mrs. VanZee's sister, Mrs. J. R. Downey and her daughter, Laura, of Dayton, Ohio. The traveler will return home next Thursday.

Incidentally, Mrs. VanZee entertained the members of her bridge club at her home Wednesday evening. Vying for top scores were Mrs. Richard Fleming, Mrs. Roger Olson, Mrs. William Shafer, Mrs. Norman Watkins, Mrs. Charles Klasek, Mrs. Charles Fries and Mrs. Roland Fox.

Understand that Mrs. Forrest Ball was the guest of honor Thursday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barlow were host and hostess at their home at dinner in celebration of Mrs. Ball's birthday. Dinner guests included Maj. Ball and their son, Roger.

Following dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hawley, Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Stoll and Mr. and Mrs. Justin Tallman gathered at the Barlow home for dessert—and to surprise Mrs. Ball.

And entertaining at luncheon at her home on Wednesday was Mrs. Donald E. Kuhle. Her guests included Mrs. Paul Williams of Denton, Mrs. Al Daniels, Jr., Mrs. Don Culbertson, Mrs. Harry Dingman, Mrs. Harley McCoid, Mrs. M. W. Mutschler, Mrs. Ralph Lind, Mrs. Leila Spray, Mrs. W. G. Hamann, Mrs. D. R. Swanson, Mrs. Ronald Gordon, Mrs. Claude Weimer, Mrs. Eugene Jager, Mrs. Joseph Kase, Mrs. Don Falos, and Mrs. Virgil Johnson.

SOUTH HILLS

And it seems that birthdays are still popular in South Hills for today we have news of an anniversary party, that of Kevin Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer D. Powell, who observed his sixth birthday on Monday.

Present for the celebration Monday afternoon were Kevin's brothers, Scot and Mark, and Bryan McCune, Gary Pederson, Ronnie Freeman, Kevin Flaherty, and Ruth Larson.

EASTRIDGE

Guest of honor at a surprise luncheon and baby shower on Thursday at the University Club was Mrs. Kenneth Pohlman. Co-hostesses for the luncheon and afternoon of bridge were Mrs. William H. Zeitz and Mrs. Albert J. Brady, and their guests included Mrs. Robert Wise, Mrs. Gerald Maddox, Mrs. Max Hulbert, Mrs. William Sondregger and Mrs. Gordon Pejsar.

And hostess to the members of her sewing group on Wednesday evening was Mrs. Gordon Pejsar. Present for the dessert supper, stitching and conversation, were Mrs. Robert Scanlan, Mrs. A. W. Wilson, Mrs. William Plourde, Mrs. Robert Lipps, Mrs. Samuel Whitworth, Mrs. Duane Grantski, Mrs. Jim Roberts, Mrs. William Sonderegger, Mrs. William Zeitz, Mrs. Richard Stehly, Mrs. Kermit Hammar, Mrs. Max Hulbert and Mrs. Richard Schultz.

The guest of honor at a pink-and-blue shower on Monday will be Mrs. Darrel Seng who will be honored at an evening party for which Mrs. Aubrey Forrest and Mrs. John Park will be co-hostesses at the home of Mrs. Forrest. Twelve guests have been invited for the informal evening.

HOLLYWOOD HEIGHTS

Traveling to Edgerton, Mo., this morning will be Mrs. Joe Houfek who will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Newman. On Sunday, the family will go to St. Joseph, Mo., for the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Houfek's grandfather, Clement Haden, who will be 92 years old.

The following Friday, the family will attend the high school graduation of Mrs. Houfek's brother, Bruce, after which the traveler will leave to return to Lincoln.

Mrs. Kuhle was hostess a second time on Wednesday when she entertained during the evening hours at a dessert supper. Her guests, incidentally, were all members of a group of temporary "widows" whose husbands were attending a business meeting.

For lack of a better name—and we think it's a good name — the group calls itself the Mother Republic Widows Club, and includes Mrs. Kuhle, Mrs. Gilbert Johnson of Fremont, Mrs. John Yarborough, Mrs. Ervin Harms, Mrs. Robert Read, Mrs. Allen Theil, Mrs. Ray Hansen, Mrs. Al Daniels, Jr., and Mrs. Bruce Hanshew.

We Hear That

Howard Doerr of Omaha, formerly of Lincoln and a graduate of the University of Nebraska, will graduate from Carnegie Tech at Pittsburgh, Pa., this weekend. Mrs. Doerr flew to Pittsburgh last Wednesday to attend the graduation ceremonies. They will return to Omaha this weekend.

★

Mrs. F. H. Myers of Richland, Wash., is spending several days as the guest of Mr. Myers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Myers. On Tuesday, Mrs. Myers was joined by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert Myers and her daughter, Laura Ann, also of Richland. The guests also will visit Mr. and Mrs. Rasche W. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Myers, and other relatives.

Greek Groups Aid Braille Club

Shoppers and career people in the down town area on Thursday saw two Greek letter groups, Delta Gamma and Phi Gamma Delta, lending their time and efforts to a worthy cause. They were raising funds for Delta Gamma's philanthropy, the Lincoln Braille Club.

The proceeds from the hard day's work go towards the maintenance of the Braille Club members' home-away-from home — their club house. Here the blind may receive instruction in braille, or they may take a book from the braille book shelves, and plan meetings and social events.

NFWC Executive Board Meets

Holding their first official meeting at the Hotel Cornhusker on Thursday and Friday are the new executive committee members of the Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs.

Named treasurer of the state federation on Thursday was Mrs. Robert Martens of Atkinson, who will fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Arthur A. Anderson of Omaha.

Value Goes Up And Down

B. Jay Becker

You are South, both sides vulnerable. The bidding has been:

South	West	North	East
1 ♥	Pass	2 ♣	Pass
2 ♥	Pass	2 ♠	Pass

What would you now bid with each of the following four hands?

1. ♠KJ64 ♥QJ9852 ♦AK ♣3
2. ♠832 ♥AKJ964 ♦K5 ♣J3
3. ♠95 ♥AQ8753 ♦AQ ♣QJ2
4. ♠AJ ♥KJ7542 ♦93 ♣K86

1. Four spades. The value of a hand goes up and down the scale as the bidding progresses. For example, take this one. At the point we open the bidding, the hand is considerably better than a minimum opening bid. There are only 14 high-card points, it is true, but the 4-6-2-1 distribution increases the value of the hand to about 18 points. The 4 added points are provisional, however, since they are based on the probability that partner will be able to support either hearts or spades as trump.

When North responds two clubs the hand shrinks greatly in value. After all, partner might have had a hand with which he could bid a spade or raise hearts immediately, but he did neither of these things. Instead, he bid two clubs, which didn't help our hand one bit, and in fact, hurt it. The hand is therefore now assessed at only its face value of 14 points.

But when North then bids spades, the situation changes drastically again. The tentative 18-point evaluation is restored and we show that this was not a minimum opening bid by jumping to four spades. We blow cold when partner bids clubs, but we blow hot when the spade fit is discovered.

2. Three hearts. Here we just stick to our story that we opened with minimum values and that neither of partner's responses helped us at all. Having bid one, two, and three hearts, we indicate our hand is of the minimum class and based largely on a long heart suit. Partner may go on, depending upon his hand, but we have done our share by hoisting a red flag.

3. Three notrump. The two heart bid on the preceding round was a bit of an underbid and we now take up the slack by jumping to three notrump. A two notrump bid at this point would make it appear that we started with a bedrock minimum, which is something that is simply not the case.

4. Three clubs. All we can do here is give partner a preference for his first suit. We started with a relatively weak hand and we have to bid weakly in order to try to slow partner down. If partner proceeds in the face of two signoffs, he does so at his peril.

Why Grow Old?

Questions Day

Josephine Lowman

Use a chair for balance, then lift and lower leg. Continue, alternating left and right. This will reduce the back hipline.

Q. "Please help me! I love to swim and summer is coming, but my thighs are so skinny that I am ashamed to wear a bathing suit. I am 15 years old."

A. Few women or girls worry about slim thighs. That is what they long for. I somehow suspect that you are thinking that you do not have enough curve at the back hipline. If so, this is your medicine.

Stand behind a chair. Place both hands on the back of the chair. Lift the left leg as far as comfortable with a stiff knee. Lower leg to place. Lift the right leg as far as comfortable. Lower leg. Continue, alternating left and right.

Q. "I am 13 years old and weigh 100 pounds. I am 5 feet, 4 inches tall and I think I have a small frame. What I want to know is, am I underweight? My measurements are bust 32, waist 23, and hips 32 inches."

A. Even with a small frame, you are some underweight. Your measurements are in lovely proportion. So—just sleep a little more and eat a couple of between-meal snacks. BUT eat those which do the most for you, such as a glass of whole milk with a little cream and chocolate and sugar added, or a glass of whole milk and some fruit, or six graham crackers, or some fruit juice and crackers and cheese, or some ice cream.

Q. "Can you please give me a few tips on how to tone down an oversized nose? there must be ways of making it appear smaller."

A. There are ways. In the first place, use make-up on your nose which is a bit darker than that which you use on the rest of your face. This should be a subtle difference, not drastic, and it should be blended out carefully into the rest of your make-up.

Your hairdo can help, too. Be sure that there is enough fullness below the ears, at the sides, and on top of your head. I do not mean that you should look "bushy," but hair which is too flat on top, pulled back at the sides or chopped off above the ears will not be flattering.

If your thighs are outsize, you'll benefit from doing the exercises in my leaflet, "Reducing the Thighs." To obtain it, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 4 to Josephine Lowman in care of the Lincoln Star.

Party Honors July Bride-Elect

We're boosting May for top spot in the shower department in spite of April's reputation in that respect. There's a difference, of course — May showers are caused by summer brides, and among the many is Miss Sandy Rice who has an early July date for her marriage to Larry Watkins of Lancaster, Ky.

On Wednesday evening Miss Rice was complimented when Mrs. Richard Pickel and Miss Cathy Clifford were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Pickel. Twenty-five guests were invited for an informal evening.

Beta Sigma Phi Activity

Beta Sigma Phi sorority held a Ritual of Jewels ceremony Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Cleve Stauffer for members of two Lincoln chapters.

Receiving their jeweled pins were Mrs. Max Maize, Mrs. Henry Olsen and Mrs. Willis Brown of Alpha Rho Chapter, and Mrs. Robert Lind and Miss Jane Wachtel, Delta Chapter.

Mrs. Leo Whitson conducted the ceremony, and refreshments were served by Mrs. Lloyd Behrens and Mrs. Russell Chesnut.

At the Tuesday evening meeting of Xi Upsilon Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, the following new officers were installed: president, Miss Evelyn Baker; vice president, Miss Winifred Thoren; recording secretary; Miss Lola Hetherington; corresponding secretary, Miss Clara Rehn; and treasurer, Miss Beulah Bedke.

Following luncheon, the afternoon hours were spent with cards.

The next meeting of the club will be held June 12.

Election

New officers of the Welcome Wagon Club, which met for luncheon Tuesday at King's Drive-In, are Mrs. Jack Higgins, president; Mrs. Henry Wolsmann, vice president; Mrs. Cal Ward, secretary; and Mrs. William Owens, treasurer.

NO EXOTIC HOLIDAY? PIE WILL HELP

Making a Tropical Chiffon Pie is a poor substitute for a two week vacation between the Tropics of Cancer and Capricorn. But it is one way of getting the flavor of these places.

Since this pie is a breeze to make, you will be taking a vacation from culinary chores. Melted butter, graham crackers and sugar compose the crust. A triumverate of citrus juices and crushed pineapple flavor the filling.

For convenience, the orange, lemon and lime juices can be squeezed from fresh fruit, poured from the can, or reconstituted from the frozen pack. They combine in tantalizing proportions to make a pie that's tartly-sweet and most refreshing.

Both whipped cream and meringue give this pie its charming frothiness. Cream of tartar stabilizes the beaten egg whites which are first folded into the gelatin-fruit mixture, followed by snowy peaks of whipped cream. There is no substitute for whipped cream in flavor and volume; this recipe shows off this air incorporating dairy food at peak performance.

TROPICAL CHIFFON PIE

6 servings
Preheated 350 degree oven
Pie plate, 9-inch

CRUST:

1½ cups (12 double crackers) graham cracker crumbs
⅓ cup (⅔ stick) butter, melted
3 tablespoons sugar

Blend crumbs, butter and sugar. Press firmly on bottom and sides of pie plate.

Bake 10 minutes. Cool.

FILLING:

1 cup (8½ - 9-oz. can) crushed pineapple
1 tablespoon (1 envelope) unflavored gelatin
½ cup sugar
⅓ cup orange juice
2 tablespoons lime juice
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
3 egg whites
¼ teaspoon cream of tartar
⅓ cup sugar
1 cup whipping cream, whipped

Drain juice from pineapple into saucepan; set fruit aside. Sprinkle gelatin over pineapple juice to soften; heat to dissolve. Remove from heat. Add ½ cup sugar; stir to dissolve. Add fruit juices, orange and lemon rind and pineapple. Cool until mixture mounds when dropped from a spoon. Beat egg whites with cream of tartar until frothy. Gradually beat in ⅓ cup sugar a little at a time. Continue beating until stiff and glossy. Fold chilled fruit mixture into egg white meringue. Carefully fold in whipped cream. (This mixture should be stiff enough to hold its shape when piled into cooled crumb crust. If mixture is too soft, chill in refrigerator just until stiff enough to form mounds.) Pile into cooled crumb crust. Chill.

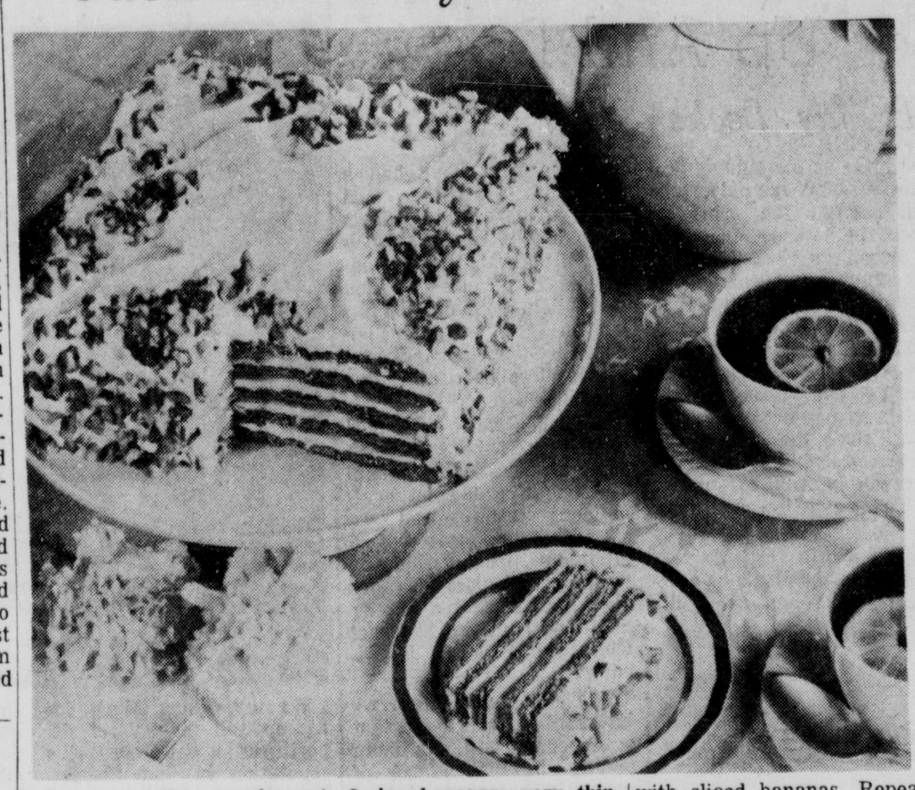
So Easy!

CUCUMBER SAUCE

½ cup real mayonaise
½ cup milk
½ cup chopped peeled cucumber
¼ cup finely chopped parsley
2 teaspoons lemon juice
⅛ teaspoon salt
Dash pepper

Blend mayonnaise and milk in saucepan. Cook over low heat 3 minutes. Stir in cucumber, parsley, lemon juice, salt and pepper. Serve warm with fish. Makes 1 cup.

Such An Easy Cream Torte



A cream torte sounds as though it would be quite a difficult project — but the one we have in mind is as easy as falling off a log—No clutter to speak of — no clatter, save for the cream whipping — and no baking. It's as simple as that.

And here are the ingredients — and the directions:

GRAHAM CREAM TORTE

1 pint heavy cream
½ cup confectioners' sugar
1 teaspoon rum flavoring
54 graham crackers
2 ripe bananas, very thinly sliced
1 cup chopped walnuts

Whip heavy cream with confectioners' sugar and rum flavoring. Arrange 9 Graham crackers in a square on a plate. Spread with a thin layer of whipped cream; top with sliced bananas. Repeat 4 more times. Top with another layer of crackers. Frost sides and top with remaining cream. Coat sides with chopped nuts, reserving a few for decoration on top. Chill about 3 hours. Cut into 9 squares.

One Pudding Two Flavors

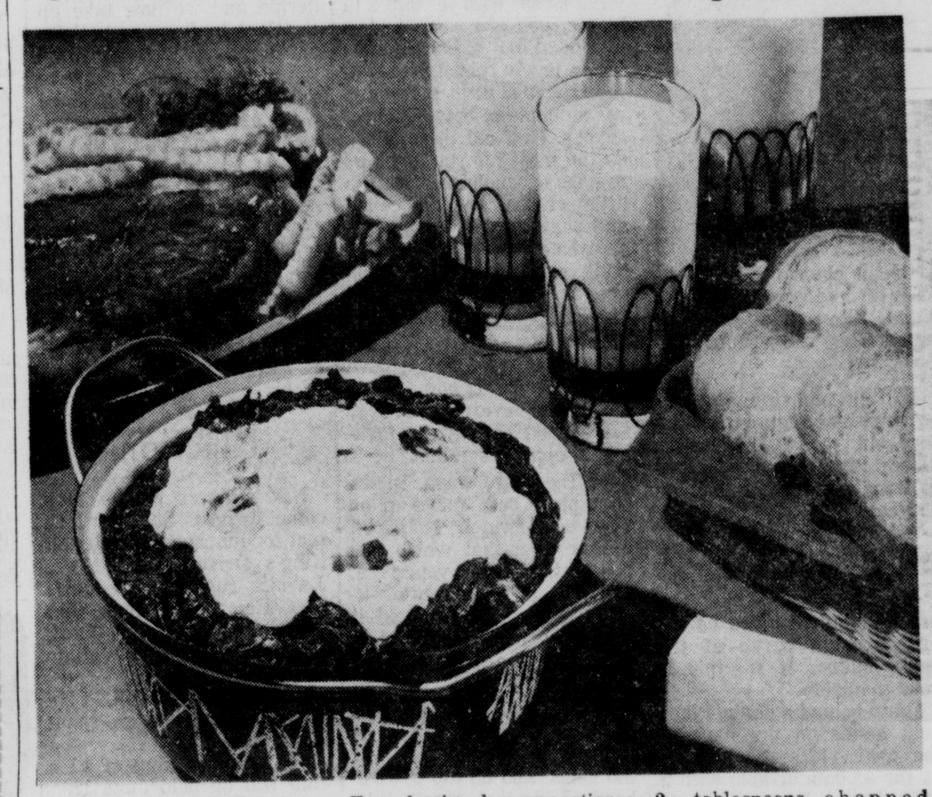
Some people like chocolate. Some people like vanilla. The twain meets in this bit of confection known as Vanilla-Chocolate Bread Pudding.

Here is what you do — and how you do it:

1 cup soft bread crumbs
3 cups hot milk
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 squares (2 oz.) unsweetened chocolate
½ cup sugar
2 egg yolks
2 teaspoons pure vanilla extract
⅛ teaspoon salt
Meringue

Combine bread crumbs with 2¾ cup hot hot milk and butter or margarine. Set aside while melting chocolate. Put chocolate in a custard cup. Place over hot water to melt. Add to it sugar and remaining ¼ cup hot milk Mix well. Blend in egg yolks and stir into the bread crumb mixture. Add pure vanilla extract and salt. Turn into a buttered 1-quart casserole. Bake in a pre-heated moderate oven (325 degree F.) 45 minutes or until knife inserted in the center comes out clean. Top with Vanilla Meringue. Reduce oven temperature to 325 degress F. (slow) and bake 15 minutes or until golden.

Sweet-Sour Sauce For Spinach



Are you a fan of German-style potato salad or wilted lettuce? You'll be enthusiastic about Sour Cream Fluff-Top Spinach, then, which also boasts the typical sweet-sour flavors of German cuisine.

Sour Cream Fluff-Top Spinach adds a flair to simple but well-prepared company meals featuring steak, roast beef or pork, or broiled fish as the entree. This topping, similar to a souffle', demands the diner's prompt attention. The sauce is fluffy smooth reminding you of a hollandaise—so elegant and luscious.

The egg of the recipe, beaten to a light lemony froth is folded into tangy delectable dairy sour cream, then added to a sweet-sour bacon and onion mixture.

For do-ahead preparation, before the guests arrive, fry the bacon and onions, measure the drippings, blend with flour, vinegar and sugar to form the basic sauce.

Just as the meat is ready to be regally borne to the table, beat the egg with a wire whip or rotary beater, deftly blend into the sour cream, gradually stir into the other ingredients and cook, stirring constantly for four to five minutes or until the sauce is smooth and thick. Presto! over hot spinach and off it is to the table.

SOUR CREAM FLUFF-TOP SPINACH

6-8 servings

6 strips bacon, cut in 1-inch pieces
2 tablespoons chopped onion
2 tablespoons flour
¼ cup vinegar
2 teaspoons sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 egg, beaten
1 cup dairy sour cream
1½ pounds fresh spinach or 2 10-ounce packages frozen spinach, cooked and drained
1 sliced hard-cooked egg (optional)

In skillet, fry bacon until crisp; remove bacon. In drippings, lightly brown onion; remove onion. Pour off all but about 2 tablespoons drippings; blend flour into drippings in skillet. Remove skillet from heat; stir in vinegar, sugar and salt. Fold egg into sour cream; add to mixture in skillet. Add bacon and onion. Return to low heat and cook, stirring constantly, until smooth and thickened. Serve immediately over hot spinach. Garnish with sliced egg, if desired.

Negro Not Cause Of Sorority's Probation

Beloit, Wis. (UPI) — Delta Gamma sorority told Beloit College Thursday that the sorority's chapter here was placed on probation last month for "a series of infractions and violations" and not because it pledged a Negro coed.

Mrs. Robert W. Preston, head of the sorority, also told Beloit Dean John P. Gwin that the college was not informed in advance because the group's national officials "felt this was a matter of concern only to the chapter and the fraternity."

Mrs. Preston said the Beloit chapter was considered "an integral part of the national fraternity, not an integral part of the college."

Beloit President Miller Upton said in a prompt reply that "we do not feel that a national body ought to discipline one of its chapters without collaborating fully with the officers of the college involved."

An alumnae of Delta Gamma and newspaper reports said the Beloit chapter was put on probation because it pledged Negro coed Pat Hamilton.

E. L. Murphy Resigns State Referee Post

Omaha (AP)—Emmet L. Murphy, 65, resigned Thursday as federal bankruptcy referee for the District of Nebraska, effective July 1.

Federal District Judge Robert Van Pelt said Murphy will be replaced by Jerrold L. Strasheim, Lincoln attorney, Strasheim was Judge Van Pelt's first law clerk.

Murphy's resignation becomes effective July 1 and Strasheim will move to Omaha at that time, Judge Van Pelt said.

Murphy, who has held the referee's post since 1950, plans to return to private practice.

Judge Van Pelt said Murphy declined reappointment for another 6-year term. The judge commented that Murphy is "one of the most competent referees in this area."

POSTCARD by Stan Delaplane

The summer sun still lies in golden glory on London's ancient streets. The window boxes—they have them even on bank buildings—are yellow with daffodils.

Along the stage set parks, the Horse Guards ride to work in sky-blue-and-silver pomp and ceremony. And the Guard at Buckingham Palace is resplendent once more in summer scarlet-and-black.

☆ ☆ ☆

Sad news for the art world: Topsy, the cat who was the toast of the art galleries, is dead. Dundee. Scragged by a passing car near her home in Hertfordshire.

Topsy was owned by artist Dr. George Cooper. He taught her to draw by dangling a crayon on a string against a scratch pad. And danged if Topsy didn't draw as pretty a picture as you please of a man on a horse.

It got into an exhibition here. And artists from all over the world said, here is a cat with talent. Maybe genius . . .

Ars longa, vita brevis.

☆ ☆ ☆

Great art is the result of not wearing glasses. (So take out the contacts, Claude, and let's get with the paint brush.)

That is a conclusion of Dr William S. Ridgeway, Durham, N.C.

He believes defective vision formed the styles of El Greco, Holbein and Cranach, Renaissance artists.

"If they had lived in the present time, they undoubtedly would have been fitted with corrective glasses. But then they would never have produced those strange and highly individual masterpieces that grace art galleries today."

In other words, it's all how you look at it.

It's not all bombs away in Russia. "Even a glass of whisky can make girls lose a sense of proportion, become friendly with little-known people, and then with shame and regret bemoan their fate."

We quote from "For You, Girls." Published by the Soviet Medical Publishing House.

The book advises girls to eat a well-buttered sandwich before hitting the vodka route.

☆ ☆ ☆

If you want to stay awake while driving, take off your shoes and socks.

Dr. Alfred Alexander writes for the British Medical Journal.

"Barefoot drivers have proved to be more alert."

Women from years 16 to 30 cry more than ladies of other ages. Don't worry about it. Science says it's natural.

All ladies hear better than men. Their ears are on the eerie.

Neither of these facts will come as a surprise to gentlemen who have seen ladies eavesdrop a conversation 10 tables away in a crowded restaurant. And thereafter weep for no reason that anyone can understand.

☆ ☆ ☆

On the green, green grass of Green Park, the London lovers sit hand in hand these summer noons. The trees are budding out. The brisk clubmen with bowler hats and rapier-furled umbrellas step briskly along to the clubs.

The bank rate has been reduced again, a warm promise of increased faith in the sterling area.

A nightingale was heard singing in Kent. Duly reported by the listener. Duly reported by the morning paper.

And summer is icumen in.

Steen Says Lake Plans Completed

Plans are completed for 3 "intensively developed" wayside parks and lakes at the Grand Island, Gibbon and Elm Creek interchanges of Interstate 80, State Game Commission Director Mel O. Steen said Thursday.

Steen's remarks came in criticism of an earlier report which said that the sites and the number of major recreation areas along the highway have not been selected.

Steen said the sites will provide trailer and camping facilities, a water system, and other facilities for the traveler.

The 3 lakes are part of the 12 "deep lakes" either planned, constructed or completed by the commission and the State Department of Roads. Seven of the lakes are under construction or have been completed between Grand Island and Gibbon, while 5 others are projected between Kearney and Elm Creek, Steen said.

He emphasized, however, that the other 9 of the 12 lakes will also have recreational facilities, but they will not be developed under present plans to the extent the other 3 sites will be developed.

He conceded that if there is a need for this development in the future, it will occur.

The 12 lakes are part of the "Platte River Parkway" program, which also includes several other smaller and shallower lakes.

Mrs. Brooks Asks Seaton: Explain Aide

Democratic gubernatorial candidate Mrs. Ralph G. Brooks has called upon Republican gubernatorial candidate Fred Seaton to "explain some irregularities in the activities of one of his assistant secretaries during the time that Seaton was secretary of the interior."

Mrs. Brooks made the comment in remarks to a group of Lancaster County Brooks-for-Governor workers.

Mrs. Brooks said that "there has been uncovered evidence of influence-peddling under Mr. Seaton's nose, and it is only fair to assume that he did not know about it." She added:

"The big question is, then, not one of campaign contributions by Statehouse workers, but how will Seaton attempt to run a clean state government.

"The record of his former assistant secretary has left grave doubts as to whether Mr. Seaton has the ability and insight to oversee an operation of the magnitude of the State of Nebraska."

25,400 Nebraska Workmen Owe Jobs To Exports

About 25,400 Nebraska workers owe their jobs to exports, Cecil L. Utterback, chairman of the U.S. Labor Department's regional staff committee in Kansas City, said.

Quoting from a brochure entitled "The American Worker's Stake in Foreign Trade," Utterback said these jobs represent 5.5% of the state's work force.

"According to the brochure," Utterback said, "some 4 million American jobs are supported by foreign trade — more than 3 million by exports and nearly one million by imports.

"Filling our own unmet needs will continue to be the primary source of economic growth in the United States," he continued. "The American people consume about 95% of the products of American industry, but vast new market opportunities are emerging abroad."

Rookies Up Braves In 4-3 Victory

Milwaukee (AP) —The Milwaukee Braves youth movement staged a 3-run uprising in the 8th inning to pull even with the Pittsburgh Pirates Thursday, then veteran Frank Bolling lashed the second pitch of the Milwaukee 9th for a home run to win the ball game 4-3.

The Pirates led from the second inning, when they got to Bob Hendley for 3 hits and two runs before the young Milwaukee lefthander settled down.

Hendley gave up a solo homer to Roberto Clemente in the 8th and was trailing 3-0 when he left the game for a pinch hitter.

Don Hoak had led off the second with a single to right center. After Bill Mazeroski flied to Henry Aaron, Cal Neeman doubled to the wall in left center, sending Hoak to third. Pittsburgh starter Earl Francis was out on a grounder to Bolling, but Hoak scored on the play. Neeman gave Pittsburgh its second run a moment later when Bill Virdon singled to center.

In the last of the 8th, two were out when rookie outfielder Howie Bedell worked Francis for a walk. Tommie Aaron singled to left, Bedell holding second. Then young Mack Jones hit his 4th home run of the season over the left field fence.

Elroy Face came on in the last of the 9th, and made two pitches. The last one was fatal. He and Hank Fischer, who took over for Hendley, both are now 1-1.

Meanwhile Braves fans lowered their day-old record for the poorest home game attendance in Milwaukee history, with 2,746 fans paying their way into the drafty 43-degree spaces of county stadium. Wednesday night's total of 3,673 was the previous low.

Boost NL Lead To Four Games

. . . MUSIAL GOES HITLESS

St. Louis, (AP) — Unbeaten Billy O'Dell, pitching in gusts of over 40 miles an hour, blew down the St. Louis Cardinals on 4 hits Thursday night, 6-0, and restored the San Francisco Giants' first place lead to 4 games.

The game was called because of a rainstorm with two out and none on in the last of the 9th.

The victory was O'Dell's 5th this season and his 8th straight, including 3 last season. The Giants won the series, 2-1 over the second-place Redbirds.

The Giants went ahead on Felipe Alou's two-run double off starter Bob Gibson in the 4th. They iced the game in the 5th on Willie McCovey's 3-run homer. McCovey played because Harvey Kuenn's father had died.

McCovey singled and Orlando Cepeda doubled ahead of Alou's double in the 4th. O'Dell singled and Chuck Hiller was hit by a pitch before McCovey homered.

All 4 hits off O'Dell were singles. The lefthander walked only one man and struck out 7. It was the first shutout of the Cardinals all season.

Bobby Shantz, making his Cardinal debut, struck out 4 in his two scoreless innings of relief.

Early Wynn Gets Win Number 294

. . . TOPS NATS BY 3-1

Washington (AP) — Early Wynn lost a shutout in the 9th inning Thursday, but the Chicago White Sox veteran won the 294th game of his career by beating the Washington Senators, 3-1.

Wynn was just two outs away from his 47th shutout when Dale Long and Gene Woodling hit back-to-back doubles in the Senators' 9th. He ended the threat by striking out John Schaive and getting Bob Schmidt on a fly to right.

Wynn pitched two-hit ball for 6 innings, and then put down threats in each of the last 3 innings. A double play helped him in the 7th, and he got Jim King on a grounder with two on in the 8th.

Wynn and Bennie Daniels matched two-hit shutout pitching for 5 innings, but the White Sox scored twice off Daniels in the 6th before he left with recurring elbow trouble.

Nellie Fox and Bob Farley opened the 6th with singles. Fox scored as Floyd Robinson forced Farley. After Jim Landis walked, Charley Smith's single scored Robinson.

Al Smith hit his third home run of the season into the upper leftfield stands in the 8th off Ray Rippelmeyer. Fox had 3 hits for the White Sox, including a triple in the 7th.

TeSelle Sparks Firth's Title Tie In District

. . . WYMORE TOPS IN CLASS C

By CONDE SARGENT
Prep Sports Writer

Peru — Firth's Kendall TeSelle and Wymore's Zephyrs were well ahead of the pack at Peru State's Class C and D district track meet Thursday.

TeSelle, defending Class D 100-yard dash champion, qualified for a state repeat by easily whipping through the 100 and 220, pacing his team to a Class D co-championship with Lewiston. Each wound up with 32½ points.

Wymore left no doubt as to the Class C track power in southeastern Nebraska, doubling the score on all but one of 13 opponents and landing 10 spots for the state meet.

There were 26 state berths snatched off in each class.

Wymore's biggest contributor was Richard Marshall, one of the state's top hurdlers.

The speedy Zephyr won both hurdle events, the broad jump and tied for first in the high jump.

Rick Woods also was a Wymore flash, winning the Class C century in a fine 10.2 and 220 in 22.7.

By comparison, the uncontested TeSelle won in 10.4 and 23.1.

Lewiston's mile relay team came through with a 3rd place finish in the last event to pull up even with Firth.

Pawnee City, showing good strength in distance running, was the only Class C school to get more than half of Wymore's 61. The Citians garnered 33 16-55, boosted by 880 winner Kent Olson and a 1-2 in the mile. Pawnee also won the pole vault.

Kaline Not Enough; LA Tips Tigers

Los Angeles (AP) — Al Kaline put Detroit ahead momentarily with his 10th home run but the Los Angeles Angels came back behind another fine performance by relief pitcher Ryne Duren and defeated the Tigers 6-4 Thursday.

A 6th inning sacrifice fly by Albie Pearson brought in Billy Consolo with the deciding run.

Duren, picking up his 4th save in 5 appearances, held the Tigers to only one hit the last 3 innings. In his last 10 1-3 innings, Duren has allowed only 3 hits, has walked only 3, has struck out 14 and hasn't given up a run.

Angel starter Ken McBride blew a 3-0 lead in the 5th when Jake Wood slammed a 3-run homer and Kaline followed one out later with a 385-foot drive into the left field pavilion.

Drysdale Fires 6-2 Bums' Win

Houston (AP) — Don Drysdale fired a 3-hitter Thursday night in pitching the Los Angeles Dodgers to a 6-2 victory over the Houston Colts.

The sidearming right-hander winning his 5th game in 6 decisions, retired 17 men in order during one stretch and turned the Colts away without a hit after Merritt Ranew's leadoff double in the second inning until Carl Warwick homered with two out in the 9th.

Houston's other run came in the first when Roman Mejias ripped an inside-the-park homer.

State Loses

Nebraska is losing one of its fine young high school coaches this spring.

Charles Smith, ex-NU basketball star, writes to report he is leaving O'Neill to continue his coaching career in his hometown, Anderson, Ind.

He'll head coach basketball, baseball and cross-country at Highland High in Anderson.

"I certainly hate leaving the state of Nebraska," Charlie says. "My years here have been very pleasant ones."

Comment: Nebraska's loss is Indiana's gain. Charlie was a fine competitor for Jerry Bush during the late 1950s and graduated to become a successful coach. He's another good example of a non-Nebraskan who came to the state via athletics and stayed to make a valuable contribution. Charlie will be missed, but we wish him well among the homefolks.

Fingers Crossed

At this writing, the San Francisco Giants have won 21 of their first 28 games and are sailing high above the National League with a 3-game bulge over the field—and a 14-game edge over the last place Chicago Cubs.

This is unbelievable and I still feel the Giants undoubtedly will give the Cubs a stiff battle for last.

Why so skeptical about a club that has flashed power, pitching and defense? Simple, really—last month I deserted the nationwide Los Angeles Dodgers' fan club and tabbed the Giants to win the NL pennant.

Ordinarily this would be the kiss of death to a flag contender—and I'm still waiting for the Giants to nosedive.

Three years ago the Giants acquired Billy Loes and Billy O'Dell, plus Don Blasingame in winter deals. Baseball officials awarded them the flag in December and I joined the parade in April. What happened to the Frisco Flahses is still a mystery.

After Pittsburgh won its first pennant in 30 years, I hopped on the bandwagon the following spring—and Vernon Law hasn't been the same since.

May Be Right

There is one important piece of evidence which indicates the Giants just might be able to overcome the jinx.

In jumping to an early commanding lead, the Alvin Darks have been whipping Pittsburgh, Los Angeles, St. Louis, Cincinnati and St. Louis (one game), as well as the Cubs.

Second-place St. Louis has started strong against the Mets, Phils, Colts, Cubs and the Reds—only one first-division team, that is, before the Giant series.

Pittsburgh, like the Giants, has met 3 first-division teams, but unlike the Giants is only 14-10 and 5 games off the pace. Los Angeles chalked up a 17-11 record playing only the Giants and the Pirates from the first-division.

Firmly established on top—at least for a while—the Giants are in a position to really spurt.

The schedule calls for 6 games with the Phillies, 7 with Houston and 3 with New York after the current Cardinal series ends—compared to only 3 games with St. Louis and a trio with LA.

I'm sure the jinx will strike, but there's a chance it might be delayed a while this summer.

Nielson Brothers Make First Lincoln Showing

Lincoln professional grapple fans will get their first glimpse at the renowed Neilson Brothers Tuesday night at Pershing Auditorium.

The Neilsons — Art and Stan — will defend their world's tag team title against a rare combination of tutor and protege.

Furnishing the opposition in the main event of Promoter Jack Pesek's rassle show will be Tough Tony Borne and his quick-witted manager, Leo The Lion Newman.

Newman has been on hand several times as a ringside tactician, but this will mark his first appearance in tights here.

It will be a 2 of 3 fall or 60-minute donnybrook. The Tuesday show starts at 8:30 p.m.

Pesek has booked Bobby Managoff and Killer Karl Cox for the seminfinal match, 2 falls or 45 mnutes. Ernie Dusek and Roy Collins will tangle in the one fall special event.

Booked in the curtain-raiser are Rocky Hamilton and John Kostas.

Fairbury—Defending champion DeWitt made a complete shambles out of the Class D District track meet here Thursday compiling 90½ points.

The powerful Panthers picked up 14 qualifying berths in the state track meet en route to their easy victory.

Shickley was a distant second in the point race with 19½ and 2 qualifiers. Dorchester managed 3 qualifying berths and 16 points.

None of the other 22 schools entered could qualify for more than one berth in the big track carnival on tap next week.

Junior Roy Smith was the big point getter for DeWitt.

He won the 180-low hurdles in 22.2, the broad jump at 20-11¾, tied for second in the high jump with a leap of 5-8, ran second in the 220, and anchored DeWitt's winning mile relay team.

The DeWitt mile relay quartet is the defending Class D state champions. The runners Thursday just missed a new District record by 1-10 second with a 3:38.1 clocking.

Diller's Steve Krebs earned a repeat trip to the state meet with a 5-10½ winning leap in the high jump. Krebs tied for second in the Class D high jump at the 1961 state meet.

Palmer Takes Early Margin In Colonial

. . . SHOOTS 3-UNDER 67

Fort Worth, Tex. (AP) — Arnold Palmer whittled 3 strokes from Colonial's challenging par 70 course Thursday and snatched the first round lead in the $40,400 National Invitation golf tournament.

Waving his magic wands 67 times, the sharpshooting Pennsylvanian put together a 32-35 and at one time dipped 5 strokes beneath par on the sprawling 7,112-yard course.

South African Gary Player, clad in his customary black golfing uniform, shot a struggling 68 and shared second place with veterans Doug Ford and Bo Wininger.

Par took a terrific beating on the traditionally tough course, which played exceptionally well Thursday with only a fairly strong breeze to hamper the players.

Johnny Pott, fresh from a triumphant victory in the Waco Turner Open last week, headed a herd of 68 shooters. These included up-and-coming Jack Nicklaus, Texan Jacky Pit, Tommy Jacobs and Bill Collins.

Collins, one of the last to windup, headed into the final two holes two under but a par at No. 17 and a bogey at 18 wiped out his chances of catching Palmer.

Homers Put Stops On A's By 5-2

Baltimore (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles made effective use of home run power for the second game in a row and whipped the Kansas City Athletics 5-2 Thursday night.

Kansas City scored twice in the opening inning, but Baltimore tied it in their half of the frame on a 2-run homer by Jim Gentile. It was Gentile's sixth homer of the season, but his first at home.

Catcher Charley Lau, filling in for the injured Gus Triandos, hit a solo homer in the fourth inning off losing pitcher Jerry Walker to put the Orioles ahead for keeps.

Windhorst, Beltzer In Districts Today

. . . TRY STATE REPEAT

Roy Windhorst of Deshler and Jim Beltzer of Grand Island today get in their qualifying licks in quest of a second straight high school track Gold Medal.

The pair of prep heavyweights were the only juniors to obtain Gold Medals at last year's state track meet. Beltzer's came in the shot and Windhorst, a Class C performer, earned his in the discus.

Both are firmly in the state picture again except that Beltzer's feats have placed the GI ace in a favorite's role to snatch off both big weight prizes this year.

Beltzer and his Grand Island teammates, a strong bidder for the state Class A title, will compete at a district meet in Columbus with 7 other A teams and 24 Class D entries.

Windhorst will be at a Class C and D meet at Hastings College.

Other districts scheduled for Friday are:

Class A-B at Nebraska Wesleyan, Class A at Boys Town, Class A at North Platte; Class B Hebron, Schuyler, Norfolk, Gothenburg, and Bayard; Class C at Norfolk Junior College; Class C-D at Fremont Bergan, and O'Neill.

The Lincoln meet will feature a number of the state's individual stars.

The state's best high jumpers—Dave Gates of Southeast and Bob Pollard of Ashland—head the individual performers.

Other top entries in the afternoon-evening show are Fairbury's Bob Smith, best high hurdler; Hastings' Dick Woolsey, No. 2 broad jumper; Syracuse's Jim Tegelhutter, 153-foot discus thrower, and Mark Ward, 12-1 pole vaulter.

All 5 Lincoln high schools are entered at Wesleyan. Fairbury and Auburn are favored in team competition.

Afternoon action will begin at 1 p.m. The evening schedule will begin at 6 p.m. in field events with track finals to start at 6:45 p.m.

Cline, Perry Push Indians To Sweep

. . . DROP TWINS BY 9-4

St. Paul-Minneapolis, (AP) — Rookie Ty Cline batted in 4 runs with a pair of clutch singles Thursday to pace Cleveland to a 9-4 victory over the Minnesota Twins which kept the Indians in second place.

Cline lined a two-run single to left as Cleveland overcame a 3-0 Minnesota lead with 4 runs in the 4th. He came through with another two-run single on a hard grounder between first and second as the Indians tallied another 4 in the 5th to clinch it.

Righthander Jim Perry went the distance for his second victory of the year without defeat. He experienced a rough start, getting clipped for solo homeruns by Lenny Green and Vic Power in the first, but settled down with the big lead.

He stopped Bernie Allen's hitting streak at 13 games. Allen went 0-for-4.

It was the first series the Twins had lost since losing 3 straight to Chicago here since April 17-19.

Minnesota got other runs in the second as starting pitcher Don Lee walked and came around on Green's double and in the 5th on Harmon Killebrew's double.

Cleveland banged 4 hits in each of its big innings. Jerry Kindall drove in two runs with a sacrifice fly and a single and Tito Francona scored two with a pair of singles.

HUSKERS' LAST STAND

Six seniors on the Nebraska baseball team will be making their final home appearance when the Cornhuskers meet Colorado in a 3-game set this weekend.

The seniors include Steve Smith of Lexington, currently leading Big 8 hitters with a .449 average; Don Purcell of Omaha, Dick Becher of Hastings, Pat Salerno of Omaha, Bill Redmond of Lincoln and Dave Myers of Lincoln.

The Huskers play Colorado a doubleheader Friday with a single game Saturday, and close out the season on the road with a May 18-19 series against Kansas State at Manhattan.

Coach Tony Sharpe said Thursday the final two weeks of the Big 8 campaign could shake up the standing of the teams running behind Missouri and Oklahoma. A team could move from 7th place to 3rd before the shelling ends May 18-19.

New York Begins Boxing Hearings

New York (AP)—Spurred by the recent ring death of Benny (Kid) Paret, a joint state legislative committee will begin public hearings here May 21 to determine whether boxing should be outlawed in New York.

The committee, making the announcement Thursday, said the inquiry first will deal with the fight between Emile Griffith and Paret at Madison Square Garden in which Paret was fatally injured.

All persons concerned with that bout will be subpoenaed to testify, the committee said.

Another aim, the committee added, is to eliminate known criminals from the sport.

Assemblyman Hayward H. Plumadore, Republican from Saranac Lake, made the announcement at a press conference.

He said the 7-member committee, which has conducted a month of preliminary investigations, will make a close study of state athletic commission policies.

He said, the probe may spread to Buffalo and Syracuse, principal upstate boxing cities.

The committee chairman emphasized that his group intended to proceed "in an open-minded and fair manner, without previously conceived opinions."

"The committee is ready to examine publicly all aspects of the Paret-Griffith fight," he added, "and more particularly, to review and examine the current practices and procedures of licensing and the medical examinations employed by the state athletic commission and the steps taken to determine the physical fitness of boxers and the moral character of their associates in the industry."

Johnson Voices 'Cautious Optimism'

. . . FOR COOPERATION WITH RUSSIA IN SPACE

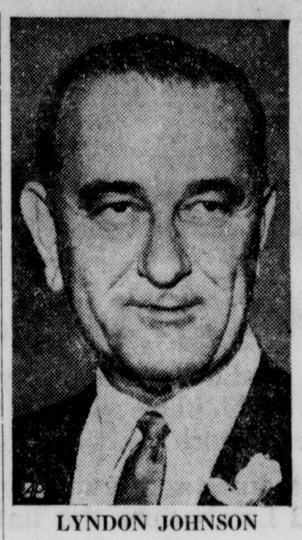
Seattle, (AP)— Vice President Lyndon Johnson voiced "cautious optimism" Thursday night for cooperation between the United States and Russia in space exploration—a program which he said is costing each American 30 cents a week and soon will cost more.

"The atmosphere is encouraging . . . even though the United States was recently forced to resume nuclear testing following the failure to reach agreement with the Soviet Union on nuclear disarmament with adequate safeguards," Johnson said.

"The breakdown on one front will not affect our efforts to achieve cooperation on the other."

After dedicating the U.S. space agency's exhibit at the Seattle World's Fair "to international good will and cooperation in a worldwide venture into space," the Vice President told a dinner meeting of the second annual Conference on the Peaceful Uses of Space:

"Powerful forces today deny freedom's meaning, or give it strange definitions that exclude liberty of conscience, of free associations, of the individual's right to make certain basic and personal decisions of h's own.



LYNDON JOHNSON

"To the leaders of nations who think they have a historic mission to conquer the world, I say this: in the long run it is these great ideals that prevail — and nothing else.

Small Comfort

"What small comfort it must be for a ruler to realize that his predecessor can use slave labor and the wealth of a great part of the globe to erect monuments to himself, and that a few years later these monuments can be torn down and that man's name erased from the history of his nation."

Listing the benefits he said would result from space research — pocket-size television sets and automobile engines no larger than a coffee can — Johnson said the U.S. space program has already cost about $6 billion.

"Our entire space program now costs each American 30 cents a week," he said. "During the next few years we plan to spend about 50 cents a week per person in space."

Stimulate Hike

However, he said, "our space program and its by-products will stimulate a sharp increase in the nation's productive output which in turn will increase our gross national product, our income and the federal government's tax intake.

"The space program is a profitable investment — not a waste of the nation's resources."

Pointing out that "the shackles of earth are being broken and the resulting freedom will affect us all," the Vice President said "The United States does not intend to act alone."

"Without ignoring the admitted differences that still exist," he said, "and without revealing anything vital to our nation's security, we are hopeful of achieving fruitful cooperation with the Soviet Union in such fields as communications, weather forecasting, mapping the earth's magnetic fields and space medicine."

Swearingen Not Intending To Quit 1st District Race

William R. Swearingen of Lincoln said Thursday he has no intention of dropping out of the race for the Republican nomination for Congress from the First District.

Swearingen, 40, a real estate broker, said many persons have asked him in recent days "who they should switch their votes to."

He said he has no intention of quitting the race and added that contrary to rumors, he did not file to split the vote of any candidate.

He said he has not been able to campaign extensively because of lack of funds.

Also vying for the nomination are Reps. Phil Weaver and Ralph Beermann, and former Rep. Robert Harrison.

OK Webster County School Consolidation

A petition plan which would consolidate 3 Webster County rural school districts with the Red Cloud school district was approved Thursday by the State School Redistricting Advisory Committee.

"If it goes through it will accomplish considerable reorganization in the Red Cloud area," Hubert Wolfe, director of school district reorganization for the Board of Education, said. Another rural district recently merged with the Red Cloud district.

Rural districts Nos. 18, 26 and 30 are involved in the latest plan.

One Rejected

The committee refused to approve another plan which would merge the high school district, No. 9, in Thayer with District 34 in Waco.

There are only 9 students in the Thayer district, which has been disapproved by the state board of education.

Wolfe said the reorganization plan was not okayed because some of the residents of the district testified they want to send their children to other surrounding districts.

State Supreme Court Takes Parochial School Suit Under Advisement

The State Supreme Court took under advisement Thursday the charge from a Colorado religious association that Nebraska laws regulating the accreditation of teachers for parochial schools are unconstitutional.

The case is labeled one of "first appearance" in the United States and could have far-reaching effects should the court rule the laws as unconstitutional.

The action involves a threat made by the State Board of Education to close a religious school operated by the Emmanuel Association of Colorado Springs, Colo., and located in Richardson County near Shubert. The state said the teacher employed by the association was not accredited and could not teach in Nebraska.

In the oral arguments Thursday, however, association attorney Robert Guenzel of Lincoln asserted that the control of the state over parochial schools is limited to the measuring of the curriculum.

'Can't Legally Force'

He said the state in no way can legally force the teacher of a private or parochial school to attend an accredited teachers college as present law demands.

Guenzel described the requirement as an "insidious thing" perpetrated by the state.

He told the court that teacher accreditation should be replaced by some method whereby the quality of the teaching could be measured.

He said that under present law, "If you take all of the teachers and put them in the same mold, the education is all going to be in the same mold.

"Sending a 19-year-old girl to a teachers college is no indication that she is going to learn anything," he added.

Established 4 Years

In outlining the background of the action, Guenzel said that the religious congregation established the school about 4 years ago. For the past 3 years, he said, the school has been in trouble with Richardson County school authorities.

Last year, he added, the county appeared satisfied when Mrs. Lila Meyerkorth, a Shubert woman and a participant in the case with the association, agreed to come in and teach for about two hours each day to supplement the tutor's work.

"Mrs. Meyerkorth doesn't feel she's able to teach the children, however," Guenzel said, "but the state of Nebraska does."

"We contend the parent has the right to determine the character of the school attended by his children," he continued. "It is fundamental religious right not to be required to comply with unconstitutional requirements."

Effect Uniformity

Guenzel said the effect of the teacher accreditation requirements is to extend to teachers uniform requirements for both parochial and public school teachers.

He added that "If we had called the late Dr. Albert Einstein to teach math, Carl Sandburg to teach English, former president Eisenhower to teach American history, all of them would be violating the laws of the state of Nebraska."

Speaking on behalf of the State Board of Education, Asst. Atty. Gen. Mel Kammerlohr said in a short presentation that the state is entitled to set up a "reasonable system" for teacher accreditation.

"Education is today the bulwark of our democracy," he added. "Religious freedom and other freedoms are dependent on democracy doing what it is."

He said that a parent may choose the school his children may attend, but that he cannot hinder the development of his children.

The court room was about three-fourths full, with most of the onlookers being members of the religious association.

The oral arguments were interrupted repeatedly by questions from the justices concerning Guenzel's charges of unconstitutionality.

Grain Dealings Slow And Light

Chicago (AP) — A moderate rallly left a few small gains sprinkled through the grain futures market Thursday although dealings generally were slow and light on the Board of Trade.

Until a brokerage firm posted reports received in a spot check of condition of the winter wheat crop in Kansas and Oklahoma, activity in that grain was almost entirely toward bracing positions against the government's May report. The over-all outlook indicated the crop in some localities had deteriorated considerably.

Wheat closed ½ cent a bushel higher to ⅛ lower, May $2.14⅜ ½; corn unchanged to ¼ lower, May $1.12-11⅞; oats ⅝ higher to ½ lower, May 71¾-⅞; rye ⅛-⅞ lower, May $1.

Borger Gets 30 Months

. . . For Giving Reds NATO Defense Secrets

Karlsruhe, Germany (AP) — The West German Supreme Court Thursday sentenced Harold N. Borger, an American, to 30 months in prison for giving the communists NATO defense secrets.

Imprisonment will be reduced by the time Borger, 42, spent in pretrial confinement since his arrest in March 3, 1961, in Nuernberg.

Borger, a native of New York, was convicted of giving an East German intelligence agency information gleaned from American servicemen he befriended since coming to Europe in 1959 to set up an import-export business.

Although he pleaded neither guilty nor innocent, Borger did not change pretrial statements that he had handed Red agents information on 15 or 20 trips to East Berlin.

Borger told the court his activities were prompted by extreme worry about the revival of German militarism and anti-semitism.

Borger, a former officer in both the U.S. Army and Air Force, made his initial contacts with East Germans on a business trip to Moscow in 1959.

Soon thereafter, the prosecution said, American operatives became suspicious of him and checked into his movements.
